CHAPTER XLI.

An ACT for the relief of divers inhabitants of the county of Adams.

WHEREAS, sundry of the inhabitants of the county of Adams have represented to the legislature that they hold lands in the said county which were settled and improved previously to the eighteenth day of June, in the year of our Lord one thousand seven hundred and forty-one, when a warrant issued for the erection of the manor of Mask, in the said county, the boundary of which was not ascertained till June, in the year of our Lord one thousand seven hundred and sixty-five: That during that period of uncertainty, as to the actual limits of the said manor, the present applicants or those under whom they claim, being supposed to be embraced by it, were precluded from paying the purchase
