

CHAPTER CI.

An ACT to erect part of Greenfield township, in the county of Erie, into a separate election district.

Section 1. BE it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, in General Assembly met, and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same, That from and after the passing of this act, the following part of Greenfield township, in the county of Erie, shall be a separate election district, viz. Beginning on the verge of lake Erie, where the western boundary line of the state of New-York intersects the same; thence south seven miles more or less to an ash tree, the south-east corner of a tract of land surveyed for Robert Smith; thence west to the eastern boundary of Erie township; thence north by the said township to the verge of lake Erie; thence by the same to the place of beginning; and the electors thereof shall hold their general elections at the house now occupied by Andrew Lowry in said district.

Part of Greenfield township in Erie county, erected into a separate election district, and place where elections to be held.

ISAAC WEAVER, junior, Speaker of the House of Representatives,
 SAMUEL MACLAY, Speaker
of the Senate.

APPROVED—January the twenty-second, 1803:

THOMAS M'KEAN, Governor
of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania.
