

CHAPTER. VIII.

An ACT further extending the act, entitled "An act for the relief of divers inhabitants, of the county of Adams."

SECT. I. BE it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in General Assembly met, and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same,

That the provisions of the act, entitled "An act for the relief of divers inhabitants of the county of Adams," passed the twelfth day of March, one thousand eight hundred and two, be, and the same is hereby extended, and to continue in force until the first day of March, one thousand eight hundred and ten.

Act for the relief of divers inhabitants of Adams county, extended.

JAMES ENGLE, Speaker
of the House of Representatives.

P. C. LANE, Speaker of the Senate.

APPROVED—the fourth day of February, one thousand eight hundred and nine,

SIMON SNYDER.

—:O:—

 CHAPTER IX.

An ACT vesting a title to a small piece of land in Hempfield township, Westmoreland county, in certain trustees, and their successors for the use of a school.

WHEREAS it has been represented to the legislature, by the petition of sundry persons, inhabitants of Hempfield township, Westmoreland county, that the said petitioners have erected a schoolhouse on a small piece of vacant and unappropriated land situate in said township, supposed to contain about fourteen acres, which piece of land is the property of this commonwealth, and that it would be an advantage to the petitioners and others, to have a school or schools established thereon, they have therefore prayed the legislature to vest a title to said land in certain trustees, and their successors, for the benefit of said school or schools: And whereas it is just and consistent with a generous policy which ought to be pursued in republican governments, to aid the less wealthy citizens in their exertions to promote education: Therefore,

SECT. I. BE it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in General Assembly met, and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same, That the officers of the land office are hereby authorized and required to issue a warrant and complete a title clear of purchase money and office fees, for a piece of land supposed to contain about fourteen acres situate in Hempfield township, Westmoreland county, adjoining lands of George Cope and Michael Mathias, unto

Officers of the land office required to complete a title clear of purchase money