CHAPTER XX.

An ACT to enable Victor Moreau to hold a certain tract of land by him purchased.

WHEREAS it appears that General Victor Moreau has for several years last past resided in the United States, and now intends to fix his residence in Pennsylvania: That for this purpose he has contracted to purchase an estate in the borough of Morrisville, situate on the banks of the river Delaware, in Bucks county, nearly opposite Trenton, that at the time he made this contract he was not informed that owing to his being an alien, his title to the said estate would be defective, and that he will now be exposed to much inconvenience unless his title to the said estate should be confirmed by an act of the legislature: Therefore,

SECT. I. BE it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in General Assembly met, and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same, That General Victor Moreau, be, and he is hereby enabled to have and hold an estate in the borough of Morrisville, situate on the banks of the river Delaware, in Bucks county, nearly opposite Trenton, for which he has contracted to purchase, and all such lands, tenements and hereditaments, as he has contracted for in the said borough, to him his heirs and assigns in fee simple, or otherwise as fully and effectually to all intents and purposes as if he had been a citizen of Pennsylvania at the time of making the said contract; and that all claim of the common-

CHAPTER XXI.

An ACT authorizing Jacob Kimmel and Abraham Konigmacher, of Lancaster county, to sell and convey certain lands therein mentioned.

WHEREAS Peter Shoemaker late of Cocalico township, in the county of Lancaster, by his last will and testament bearing date the twenty-fifth day of September, in the year one thousand seven hundred and seventy-one, did devise unto Jacob Sensemen, Ludwick Hacker, Jacob Eicker, Benjamin Bowman and Peter Fahnstick, a certain tract of land in the said township of Cocalico, containing about two hundred acres more or less, in trust to employ the same for the use, benefit and maintenance of the christian people at Ephrata, and in case of the death of all or any of the said trustees, the said christian people were empowered to choose others in their place and stead: And whereas the trustees subsequently appointed agreeably to said will, together with Benjamin Bowman, the only surviving original trustee, have represented in their petition, that there are now remaining in communion at Ephrata, but one brother and five sisters, who are aged and infirm, and require immediate relief, that cannot be derived from said land which is uncultivated, and have desired to be authorized to sell one hundred and fifty acres thereof, and to apply the proceeds to the immediate relief and future benefit of the said surviving brother and sisters, and as the maintenance of the said christian people was the principal intention of Peter Shoemaker the devisor, which cannot be obtained without a sale of part of said tract: Therefore,

Jacob Kimmel and Abraham Konigmacher, authorized to sell a tract of Land in Lancaster County, part of the proceeds of sale to be appropriated to the immediate relief of surviving

SECTION I. BE it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in General Assembly met, and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same, That Jacob Kimmel and Abraham Konigmacher, of the township of Cocalico, in the county of Lancaster, or the survivor of them, be, and they are hereby authorized to sell by public or private sale, in such manner as to them may appear most advantageous, one hundred and fifty acres, part of the tract of land devised by Peter Shoemaker, for the use of the christian people in communion with the society at Ephrata, situated lying and being in Cocalico township, in the county of Lancaster, bounded
