

CHAPTER XL.

An ACT to authorize the guardians of the person and estate of Doctor John Houston, of the county of Lancaster, to sell and convey certain lands therein mentioned.

WHEREAS it appears that Doctor John Houston, of the county of Lancaster, has for some time been totally deprived of his reason and understanding, and thereby rendered incapable of taking care of himself or managing his affairs, and that he has been regularly declared to be a lunatic, or non compos mentis, by the court of common pleas of the county of Lancaster aforesaid; and his wife Susanna, and son James, together with James Wright, appointed guardians of his person and estate. And whereas it appears that said Doctor John Houston did, a short time before his insanity, enter into an article of agreement with a certain James Karskadon, for the sale of a certain tract of land, containing one hundred and fifty acres, and allowance situate in the first fork of Sinimahoning creek, Lycoming county. And whereas it appears that the estate of the said Doctor John Houston is unproductive, and considerably embarrassed, and his wife has requested permission to sell and convey certain lands in York county, to enable her to support her husband, and to educate and support her younger children. And it appears reasonable and just that she should be authorized so to do: Therefore,

SECT. II And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That the said Susanna Houston, James Houston, and James Wright be, and they are hereby authorized and empowered to sell and convey entire, or in such parts as they may think proper and expedient, in fee simple, at public, or private sale, to such person or persons, who may be willing to purchase the same, a certain piece or parcel of land, with the appurtenances, in Hellam township, York county, containing fifty acres, bounded by
