CHAPTER LXXXIV.

An ACT for the relief of William M<sup>c</sup>Kibben and George Long.

WHEREAS it appears that a warrant issued in the year one thousand seven hundred and eighty-six, in the name of John M<sup>c</sup>Kibben, for a tract of three hundred acres of land on the waters of Racoon creek, but prior to executing the survey it was discovered that the said tract had been previously appropriated, and agreeably to a law then existing said M<sup>c</sup>Kibben executed the warrant upon a tract of land on the waters of Cross creek, in the year one thousand seven hundred and eighty-eight. And whereas it further appears from the Receiver-general's office, that the said John M<sup>c</sup>Kibben did pay to the commonwealth in the year one thousand seven hundred and eighty-six, the full amount of said warrant at the rate of ten pounds per hundred acres, but by some means the return of the survey was not made by the deputy surveyor, in consequence of which neglect or delay of the return of the survey to the surveyor-general's office, the affirmative shall be given to the governor. Who shall thereupon appoint viewers. Who shall report to him in writing whether the same be well executed. If in the affirmative, the governor or shall issue his licence for the erection of gates, Certain sections of former acts repealed. Privileges of the company as to the road so completed.

it is rendered impracticable to obtain a patent. And whereas the said John M<sup>c</sup>Kibben by his last will and testament did devise and bequeath the said tract of land, to his son William, the present petitioner : Therefore,

SECTION I. BE it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, in General Assembly met, and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same,

Land-officers directed to accept a certain return of survey.

That the officers of the land-office be and they are hereby authorized and directed to accept the return of a survey containing three hundred and sixty-eight acres and three quarters of an acre of land, and the usual allowance of six per centum for roads, &c. situate on the waters of Cross creek, in Washington county, and executed on the nineteenth day of March, one thousand seven hundred and eighty-eight, by Presley Nevill and Matthew Ritchie deputy surveyors, in pursuance of a warrant granted to John M<sup>c</sup>Kibben for three hundred acres, dated the twenty-third day of February, one thousand seven hundred and eighty-six, and on application made, to grant a patent therefor to the said William M<sup>c</sup>Kibben, on his producing due proof in the usual form, of the time of settlement and improvement of said land, and paying interest thereon from the said first improvement to the time of warranting the same, and also paying into the proper office the purchase money and interest for any surplusage according to law.

And to grant a patent therefor to Wm. M<sup>c</sup>Kibben on his paying the monies due on said tract of land.

SECT. II. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid,

Patent to issue to Geo. Long.

That the said officers be and they are hereby authorized to accept a survey and grant a patent to George Long, for a tract of land, called the Mingo path tract, situate in Fayette township, Allegheny county, containing two hundred and one acres and allowance, surveyed on the twenty-fourth day of November, one thousand seven hundred and eighty-six, in pursuance of a warrant granted to George Aston, for four hundred acres, dated March seventeenth, one thousand seven hundred and eighty-five, upon the same principles and subject to the same provisions as are contained in the preceding section: Provided, that nothing in this act contained shall be construed to impair or affect the right or title of any other person or persons whomsoever in or to the said tracts of land, or any part thereof.

JAMES ENGLE, Speaker of the House of Representatives.

P. C. LANE, Speaker of the Senate.
