

CHAPTER LXXXIV.

An ACT authorizing John Baird, Hugh Baird, and Samuel Adams, executors of the last will and testament of John Baird, deceased, to make a title for a certain tract of land, therein mentioned.

WHEREAS, it appears that John Baird, late of Beaver county, deceased, did in his life-time, sell to a certain James Mc.Kee for the consideration of four hundred and fifty dollars, four hundred and ten dollars of which, was paid to said John Baird, a certain tract of donation land, in district number one, containing two hundred acres, it being lot number sixty-eight; but as there was no written agreement between the parties, consequently the existing laws on the subject gives no authority to the court, to complete the title to the land aforesaid: Therefore,

SECTION I. BE it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, in General Assembly met, and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same, That the executors aforesaid, be, and they are hereby empowered so soon as the said James Mc.Kee shall fully comply with the verbal agreement aforesaid, to make and execute to the said James Mc.Kee, a deed of conveyance for all the right, title, estate and interest, that the said John Baird had in his lifetime, to the tract of land aforesaid, which deed shall vest the title in the said Mc.Kee, as fully as if the said John Baird had conveyed the same in his lifetime to the said James Mc.Kee.

JOHN WEBER, Speaker
of the House of Representatives.

P. C. LANE, Speaker of the Senate.

APPROVED—the nineteenth day of March, one thousand eight hundred and ten.
