CHAPTER XCII.

An ACT to direct the sale of a certain lot of ground, the property of this commonwealth, situate in the township of the Northern Liberties, in the county of Philadelphia.

WHEREAS, by an act of the general Assembly of the commonwealth of Pennsylvania, passed the first day of April, one thousand seven hundred and eighty-four, the president and vice president of the supreme executive council were empowered to appoint two or more, commissioners to expose to public sale, and sell to the highest bidder, the lot of ground and barracks situated and being in the Northern Liberties of the city of Philadelphia. And whereas it appears that the lots of ground so described were sold, and the proceeds thereof paid into the treasury, excepting one lot, which was not claimed by the purchaser, remains the property of the commonwealth: Therefore,

SECT. I. BE it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, in General Assembly met, and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same, That the governor be authorized and directed to appoint a commissioner who shall, upon the usual public notice being given, make public sale, at the townhouse in the Northern Liberties, to the best and highest bidder, of the lot situated in the Northern Liberties, as before described; and execute a good and sufficient deed of conveyance, in fee simple, to the purchaser or purchasers; and the monies arising from the sales aforesaid shall be paid into the treasury of this commonwealth, and the accounting officers are hereby directed to settle the commissions and charges accruing on said sale, and the amount thereof shall be paid out of any unappropriated monies in the treasury, on a warrant drawn on the state treasurer by the auditor general.

A certain lot in the Northern Liberties to be sold.

Proceeds of to be paid into the treasury. Commissions of sale &c. to be paid.

JOHN WEBER, Speaker
of the House of Representatives.

P. C. LANE, Speaker of the Senate.
