

the payment of the amount of such valuation to the proper party (but not otherwise) shall be entitled to enter upon, take, hold, possess and enjoy forever the estate, property, or privilege so valued, and therefrom* to eject and remove the previous owner or claimant.

JOHN WEBER, Speaker
of the House of Representatives.

P. C. LANE, Speaker of the Senate.

APPROVED—the twentieth day of March, one thousand eight hundred and ten.

SIMON SNYDER.

CHAPTER CXIX.

A supplement to an act entitled, "An act to authorize Robert Kennedy, his heirs and assigns, to dig and support a Mill race, in and adjacent to the river Schuylkill near its falls."

SECT. I. BE it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, in General Assembly met, and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same, That so much of the fourth section of the act to which this is a supplement as limits the toll therein mentioned to thirty-three cents be, and the same is hereby repealed. and that the said Robert Kennedy, his heirs and assigns, are hereby authorized on his or their having completed, on the western side of the river Schuylkill, at or near its falls, a convenient and well-constructed lock of at least seventy-five feet in length, and twenty feet in width for the safe and convenient passage of all boats and rafts using the navigation of said river, under the restrictions (excepting only as aforesaid) in the said act mentioned, to demand and receive from the masters, owner, or supercargo, or any other person or persons navigating any and every boat passing through the said lock, fifty cents to be paid before such boat pass through the same.

The 4th Section of the original act repealed. R. Kennedy &c. to receive 50 cts. from each person navigating through his Lock.

SECT. II. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That nothing in this act shall be so construed as to authorize the aforesaid Robert Kennedy, his heirs or assigns, to erect any water works on the western side of the river Schuylkill, where the aforesaid lock shall be made.

said Kennedy not to erect water works, &c.

SECT. III. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That so much of the first section of the act to which this act is a supplement as directs the said Robert Kennedy, his heirs and assigns, at his and their own proper costs, to fill up the interstices so as to prevent the water from passing between the Part of the first Section of the original act repealed.

"Therefore," in the original.

rocks at the said falls, except in the channel, that is now used for the purpose of navigation, shall be, and the same is hereby repealed.

JOHN WEBER, Speaker
of the House of Representatives.

P. C. LANE, Speaker of the Senate.

APPROVED—the twentieth day of March, one thousand eight hundred and ten.

SIMON SNYDER.

CHAPTER CXX.

An Act establishing an academy in Carmichael's town, in the county of Greene.

SECT. I. BE it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in General Assembly met, and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same, That there shall be, and hereby is established, in Carmichael's town, in the county of Greene, an academy or public school, for the education of youth in the English and other languages, in the useful arts, sciences and literature, by the name, style, and title of "Greene Academy," under the care, direction and government of six trustees, to wit: Charles Swan, James Fleniken, George Evans, Robert Lewis, Robert Whitehill junior and Hugh Barclay, which said trustees, and their successors, to be elected as is hereinafter mentioned, shall be, and hereby are declared to be one body politic and corporate in deed, and in law, by the name style and title of "The Trustees of Greene Academy," invested with similar powers and required to perform similar duties to those vested in, and directed to be performed by the trustees of Union academy in the county of Fayette, under the directions and provisions of the act entitled "An act establishing an Academy in the borough of Uniontown in the county of Fayette," passed February fourth, one thousand eight hundred and eight, except as is otherwise provided for by this act.

An academy established in Carmichael's town.

Style and title of Commissioners named. Who and their successors shall be a body politic. Powers and duties of. Style of the corporation.

SECT. II. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That the number of trustees shall be six, as aforesaid, and shall be so changed as that none of them shall continue in office for a longer term than six years, without being re-elected by the people of the said county, and for that purpose it shall be the duty of the said trustees at their first meeting, when not less than four of them shall be present (which number of members shall be a board or quorum to do business) and they are hereby authorized and required to cast lots for ascertaining the member to be changed each year until the whole number shall be changed, and in order annually to supply the va-

Number of trustees to be six. Their term of service.

4 of whom to be a quorum.