poor of the counties of Chester and Montgomery, they shall annually publish in the newspapers of their respective counties, for the information of the citizens thereof, a full and detailed statement of the receipts and expenditures on account of the said institutions respectively.

SECT. II. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That as soon as may be practicable, after the passing of this act, the number of directors for the county of Chester shall be reduced to three, that is to say, there shall be but one chosen in each year hereafter, and as soon as their number is so reduced, any two of them shall be a quorum for transacting the business of the corporation, and their salary shall be forty dollars each, per annum, and no more; Provided nevertheless, that if any director shall be obliged to attend on any suit or action where the corporation is a party, the said director shall be entitled to, and receive one dollar and thirty-three cents for every day he shall necessarily attend on such suit or action, and that no director shall receive pay except in proportion to the days he shall attend, according to the adjournment of the board or the class to which he shall belong.

SECT. III. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That from and after the thirty-first day of December next, the office of treasurer of the said institution shall be abolished, and the duties of clerk to the corporation shall be performed by the steward of the house, and his salary including the matron's shall not exceed the sum of four hundred dollars per annum; and all monies appropriated for the use of said establishment, shall be paid by the county treasurer, only on orders drawn on him by the directors thereof, any thing in any former law or laws to the contrary notwithstanding.

CHAPTER III.

An ACT empowering certain trustees therein named to sell a tract of land in Tioga county, together with a lot of ground in the borough of Lancaster, and to appropriate the monies arising therefrom to the purposes therein mentioned.

WHEREAS several of the members of the English Presbyterian congregation in the borough of Lancaster, by petition, have represented to the legislature, that by the last will and testament of Josiah Lokart, late of said borough, deceased, the said congregation is entitled to a certain tract of land situate on a branch of Tioga river in the county of Tioga, containing one thousand and five acres, with the usual allowance, and that by a grant from James Hamilton, esq. the said congregation is also entitled to a certain lot or piece of ground situate in the borough of Lancaster aforesaid, containing in front on Lime street, sixty-four feet and four inches and an half, and in depth two hundred and forty-five feet to a fourteen feet alley, bounded on the north by a lot now of Michael Gundacker, on the east by said alley, on the south by a lot now in the tenure of Sarah Musser, and west by the street aforesaid; and the said tract of land and lot of ground being entirely unproductive and of no real benefit to said congregation: Therefore,

SECT. I. Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the commonwealth of Pennsylvania, in General Assembly met, and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same, That it shall be lawful for Samuel Humes, Jeremiah Mosher, Henry Pinkerton, Henry Slaymaker, William Dickson, William Kirkpatrick, William Montgomery, Samuel Clendenin and John Whiteside, or a majority of them, to sell and dispose of the said described tract of land and lot of ground, together with the rights, privileges and appurtenances thereunto belonging, as soon as the same can conveniently be done, either by public or private sale, and to execute and deliver such deed or assurance as shall be valid in law to the purchaser, his and her heirs or assigns; saving nevertheless the legal rights of all other persons therein, and to appropriate and apply the money arising from such sale, for the use and benefit of said congregation, in such way and in such manner as the said trustees with the consent of a majority of the members thereof, may think proper and for no other purpose whatever.

Trustees of the Presbyterian congregation in the borough of Lancaster, authorized to sell certain lands.

Legal rights of others secured; proceeds of the sales to be appropriated agreeably to the directions of a majority of the members of the congregation.

JOHN WEBER, Speaker of the House of Representatives,
P. C. LANE, Speaker of the Senate.

APPROVED—the twenty second day of December, one thousand eight hundred and ten.
