

CHAPTER XLI.

A SUPPLEMENT to the act entitled, " An act to enable the administrators of Mark Deary, late of the borough of Pittsburg, deceased, to convey a certain lot of ground to the purchaser thereof.

WHEREAS the legislature of the last session did pass an act to enable the administrators of Mark Deary, deceased, to convey to his brother Francis Deary a certain lot of ground in the borough of Pittsburg; And whereas it appears that an error as to the number of said lot was inserted in the act, by which the intention of said administrators has been defeated; For remedy whereof,

SECT. I. Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, in General Assembly met, and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same, That the administrators mentioned in the act to which this is a supplement, be, and they are hereby authorized to convey in fee simple, a lot on Virgin Alley, number four hundred and fourteen, in the general plan of the town of Pittsburg, to Francis Deary, as fully and effectually as they are authorized to convey the lot in the act to which this is a supplement.

Administrators of Mark Deary

CHAPTER XLII.

An ACT to enable the administrators of James Scott, late of the borough of Gettysburg, deceased, to convey a certain lot of ground therein described, to George Lashells.

WHEREAS it appears that James Scott, late of the borough of Gettysburg, in the county of Adams, deceased, did in his life time sell unto a certain Dixon Greer, a lot of ground in the said borough of Gettysburg, and received full payment for the same, of which sale there is no written evidence, and that the said Dixon Greer did afterwards sell the lot aforesaid to George Lashells, and received the purchase money in full, but could not make a title therefor as there exists no deed to him from the said James Scott, nor any written evidence of contract by which his administrators might, upon application to the court, be authorized to complete the title; Therefore,

Robert Hays et al. empowered to convey &c.

SECT. I. Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the commonwealth of Pennsylvania, in General Assembly met, and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same, That Robert Hays and John M'Conaughy, administrators of the estate of James Scott, deceased, be and they are hereby authorized and empowered by a sufficient deed or deeds in law, to convey, release and assure to George Lashells, his heirs and assigns, a lot of ground in the borough of Gettysburg, in the county of Adams, situate on the north side of Middle-street, numbered one hundred and forty-four, with all the right, title, interest, property and estate whatsoever, which the said James Scott had in his life time to the said lot of ground, with the appurtenances, which deed or deeds when executed by the said administrators, shall be as good and effectual in law, to all intents and purposes, as if the said James Scott had fully executed his contract aforesaid, and conveyed said lot of ground to the purchaser in his lifetime.

JOHN WEBER, Speaker
of the House of Representatives.

P. C. LANE, Speaker of the Senate.

APPROVED—the thirteenth day of February, one thousand eight hundred and eleven.

SIMON SNYDER.

CHAPTER XLIII.

An ACT supplementary to an act entitled " An act to enable the governor to incorporate a company to make an artificial road from the east end of Perkiomen bridge, in the county of Montgomery, passing through Pottsgrove and by the White Horse tavern, in Amity township, to the borough of Reading in Berks county.
