CHAPTER LVIII.

An ACT for the relief of Thomas M^cKeen.

WHEREAS James Doak, of Allen township, in the county of Northampton, and commonwealth of Pennsylvania, in the year of our Lord, one thousand seven hundred and seventy-nine, the twenty-fourth day of September, purchased at public sale of the agents appointed for the sale of confiscated estates, a tract of one hundred and five acres of land, situate in Allen township aforesaid, as the estate of Andrew Allen, which said tract of land with the appurtenances was by sundry lawful conveyances, vested in Thomas M^cKeen; And whereas, the said Thomas M^cKeen was in October, 1809, by due course of law evicted from the said premises, by a title paramount in a certain Margaret Delancy, of the kingdom of Great-Britain; And whereas, it is just and reasonable that the said Thomas M^cKeen should be indemnified for the loss he hath sustained in consequence of said eviction from his property; Therefore,

SECT. 1. Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, in General Assembly met, and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same, That the governor of this commonwealth be and he is

Governor to draw his warrant in favour of Thomas M'Keen
for 1351 dollars, 76 cents.

hereby authorized and directed to draw his warrant on the state treasurer in favour of Thomas M'Keen of Northampton county, and state of Pennsylvania, for the sum of one thousand three hundred and fifty-one dollars and seventy-six cents, as a full compensation for all costs and damages which he has sustained in consequence of his being evicted by due course of law from a certain tract of land, with the appurtenances, situate in the township of Allen and county of Northampton, containing one hundred and five acres, which was purchased by the said Thomas M'Keen, and was held by him under a title derived from the commonwealth, until the eviction aforesaid.

JOHN WEBER, Speaker
of the House of Representatives.

P. C. LANE, Speaker of the Senate.

APPROVED—the eighteenth day of March, one thousand eight hundred and eleven.

CHAPTER LIX.

An ACT to authorize Matthew Thompson and Adam Boyd, executors of the last will and testament of William Boyd, late of the county of Cumberland, deceased, to sell and convey a certain plantation or tract of land therein mentioned.

WHEREAS it appears that William Boyd, late of Newton township, in the county of Cumberland, died seized of a certain plantation or tract of land in said township, containing two hundred and seventy-five acres, adjoining the Conodoguinet creek and lands of Alexander Laughlin and others, leaving a widow and five minor children, after having made his last will and testament, in which he bequeathed one third part of his personal, and the interest of one third part of his real estate to his wife, and the remainder to be equally divided amongst his five children, and did by his last will and testament appoint Matthew Thompson and Adam Boyd his executors, and also guardians of his children; And whereas, it appears that it was the intention of the aforesaid testator to have a clause inserted in his will authorizing his executors to sell his real estate, but through mistake or neglect of the person who drew the will it was not done; And whereas the aforesaid executors and guardians have prayed the legislature to be authorized by law to sell and convey the aforesaid plantation, or tract of land, agreeably to the intention of the testator; Therefore,

SECT. 1. Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the commonwealth of Pennsylvania, in General Assembly met, and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same,
