

SECT. III. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, 'That the commissioners aforesaid as soon as conveniently may give notice in two of the public papers printed in Philadelphia, and one or more of the public papers printed at Wilkesbarre, of a time and place by them to be appointed, not less than thirty days from the publication of the first notice; at which time and place the said subscribers shall proceed to organize the said corporation, and shall choose by a majority of votes of the said subscribers by ballot to be delivered in person or by proxy duly authorized, one president and twelve managers, one treasurer, and such other officers as they shall think necessary to conduct the business of the said company for one year and until such other officers shall be chosen, and the said managers so chosen and their successors shall and may make such by-laws, rules, orders and regulations not inconsistent with the constitution and laws of this State or of the United States as shall be necessary for the well ordering the affairs of the said company, and generally have like powers, authorities and privileges necessary for carrying on and completing the said turnpike road; and be subject to all the duties, qualifications, restrictions, penalties, fines, and forfeitures, and be entitled to like tolls and profits in proportion to the distance as are given and granted to "The president, managers and company of the Easton and Wilkesbarre turnpike road;" Provided, That if the said company shall not proceed to carry on the said work in three years after the passing of this act, or shall not within ten years afterwards complete the said road according to the true intent and meaning of this act, then in either of these cases, it shall and may be lawful for the legislature of the commonwealth to resume all and singular the rights, liberties, privileges and franchises by this act granted to the said company.

CHAPTER CVII.

An ACT granting an annuity to John Watson for life.

WHEREAS it appears to the legislature that John Watson served as a soldier in the Pennsylvania line in the late revolutionary war, and that while in the military service of his country, his constitution, from the particular services and privations he had to undergo, became so enfeebled as to render him unfit for duty in the field and he was enrolled in the invalid corps; that the injury which his constitution received as aforesaid combined with the infirmities of age renders him totally unable to procure subsistence by labour; Therefore,

SECT. I. Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the commonwealth of Pennsylvania, in General Assembly met, and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same, That the state treasurer be and he is hereby authorized to pay to John Watson aforesaid, or order, the sum of forty dollars out of any unappropriated money in the treasury; and that an annuity of forty dollars be granted to the said John Watson, to be paid half yearly during his life, to Isaac Lewis of Chester county, his executors or administrators, his or their lawful attorney, by the state treasurer out of any unappropriated money, to commence the first day of January, one thousand eight hundred and eleven, which annuity shall be expended by the said Isaac Lewis, his executors or administrators, his or their lawful attorney, in providing clothing and diet for the said John Watson. And it shall be and hereby is made the duty of the said Isaac Lewis, his executors or administrators, his or their lawful attorney, to make an annual statement to the orphans' court of Chester county on oath or affirmation, showing the manner in which he or they have executed the trust reposed in him or them by this act. And it shall be the duty of the clerk of said court to file said account without fee or reward.

40 dollars to be paid to John Watson, and an annuity of like amount granted to him for life to be paid to Isaac Lewis.

How to be expended.

And accounted for.

JOHN WEBER, Speaker of the House of Representatives.
