Proviso.

How roads on county lines are to be allowed and laid out.

SECT. II. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That on petition of the inhabitants of any two adjoining counties to lay out a road on the lines which divides the said counties the justices of the court of quarter sessions of each county are hereby empowered and required to appoint respectively, three reputable freeholders from the neighbourhood where the road is requested; and the said six freeholders or any five of them shall proceed to view the said ground and make report to the court of each county respectively in the manner prescribed by the first section of the act to which this is a supplement; and if the said justices respectively shall approve thereof the same shall be confirmed and recorded agreeably to the provisions of the said act.

How bridges are to be erected over streams dividing counties.

SECT. III. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That on petition by the inhabitants of any two adjoining counties to erect a bridge over any creek or rivulet being the line of the said counties, the justices of the said courts of quarter sessions respectively are hereby empowered and required to appoint a view in the same manner as for laying out a road on county lines; and if on the report of the said viewers it appears to the courts, grand jury, and commissioners of the respective counties that such a bridge is necessary, and agreeably to the provision of the twenty-first section of the act to which this is a supplement, the same shall be erected and kept in repair by the joint expense of both counties.

Proceedings to be had when the reports do not agree on the county line.

SECT. IV. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That in all cases where separate views and reports of roads supposed to be on the dividing lines of counties have been made under the authority of the respective courts of quarter sessions of the adjoining counties, and the said reports do not agree as to the line, then and in such cases, on petition of the supervisors of the highways or inhabitants of the said counties to the justices of the court of quarter sessions of each county, it shall be the duty of the said justices, and they are hereby empowered and required to appoint viewers, and proceed in the same manner as is directed by the second section of this act, and when so confirmed shall be considered as on the county line, and be kept in repair at the joint expense of the adjoining townships; Provided always, That the viewers in such cases shall have power to vacate any part of the old road for which the new road is to be a substitute.

Provided.

Penalty on supervisors neglecting to put and keep up index-boards.

SECT. V. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That from and after the passing of this act, if any supervisor or supervisors of any township in this commonwealth shall, after ten days notice, neglect or refuse to put up and keep in complete repair, the index-boards directed to be set up by the twenty-fourth section of the act to which this is a supplement, every supervisor so offending and being thereof legally convicted by the oath or affirmation of one or more credible witness or witnesses before any justice of the peace, or before the court of quarter sessions of said county, shall respectively pay a sum not exceeding ten dollars in the discretion of the court or justice before whom such conviction shall be had, to be applied and ex-
