CHAPTER XXXI.

An ACT granting an annuity to Jacob Plumb, a wounded militia man.

WHEREAS it satisfactorily appears to the legislature, that Jacob Plumb served in the year one thousand seven hundred and eighty-two, with the militia, against the Indians, and was wounded on the right shoulder by a ball, and tomahawked across his nose, which wounds, add to the infirmity of age: Therefore,

SECT. I. Be it enacted by the senate and house of representatives of the commonwealth of Pennsylvania, in general assembly met, and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same, That the sum of forty dollars, be, and the same is hereby granted to Jacob Plumb, to be paid immediately after the passing of 40 dollars to be paid to J. Plumb,
