CHAPTER L.

An ACT granting to John Brown, in trust for the children of Nathaniel Simpson, a tract of donation land, in right of Simpson Harris.

WHEREAS it has been represented to the legislature, by Nathaniel Simpson, late of Centre county, that his nephew, Simpson Harris, entered into the service of his country, at the commencement of the revolutionary war with Great Britain; that he enlisted as a private soldier, to serve during the said war; that he continued therein until his death, which took place some time in the latter end of the year, one thousand seven hundred and eighty-two, a few months before the close of said war; that previous to his death he made and published, in due form, his last will and testament, by which, (amongst other things,) he devised all the land to which he was entitled for the services aforesaid, to the said Nathaniel Simpson, his heirs and assigns; all which appears, by well authenticated documents, but owing to circumstances attending the case, the said Nathaniel did not apply for said land until barred by the act of limitation; Therefore,

SECT. 1. Be it enacted by the senate and house of representatives of the commonwealth of Pennsylvania, in general assembly met, and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same, That the officers of the land office, be and they are hereby authorized and required, to grant a patent to John Brown, of the borough of Lewistown, Mifflin county, in due form, for two hundred acres of donation land in trust for the children, their heirs or assigns, heirs of Nathaniel Simpson, out of the lots yet remaining undrawn; the said John Brown, his heirs, executors, and administrators, shall be authorized to pay the taxes, and all necessary expenses in procuring the title aforesaid ; and shall convey the same to the said heirs of Nathaniel Simpson, as soon as they, or any of them, arrive to the age of twenty-one years.

Tract of land to be patented to J. Brown, in trust, &c.
