CHAPTER CXVII.

An ACT providing for the final settlement, and full discharge of the claim of Edmund Milne.

WHEREAS Edmund Milne during the revolutionary war, by the order of Joseph Reed, then president of the supreme executive council of Pennsylvania, delivered one hundred and eighty-five barrels of flour to John Holker, esquire, for the use of the French Marine, and has in pursuance of an act of the general assembly of this commonwealth, passed the seventeenth day of February, one thousand eight hundred and six, received payment of the principal due therefor, but has never been allowed interest thereon: Therefore,

Account of E. Milne to be settled and paid.

SECT. I. Be it enacted by the senate and bouse of representatives of the commonwealth of Pennsulvania, in general assembly met, and it is Lereby enacted by the authority of the same, That the auditor general be and he hereby is authorized and directed to adjust and settle the account of Edmund Milne, allowing him interest on the price of one hundred and eighty-five barrels of flour, furnished by him for the use of the French Marine, during the revolutionary war, by order of the president of the supreme executive council of Pennsylvania, from the time of his delivering the same until he received the principal allowed him, in pursuance of an act passed in his favour, on the seventeenth of February, one thousand eight hundred and six; and the said auditor general shall thereupon, draw a warrant on the state-treasurer in favour of the said Edmund Milne for the amount thereof,

JOHN TOD, Speaker

of the House of Representatives.

P. C. LANE, Speaker of the Senate.

Approved—the twenty-seventh day of March, one thousand eight hundred and twelve.

SIMON SNYDER.

CHAPTER CXVIII.

An ACT to enable Edward Dela Montanye, to convey a certain piece of land to the purchasers.

WHEREAS it is represented to the legislature that Timothy Merrick late of the borough of Bristol, Bucks county, deceased, was seized of a certain lot of ground in the said borough of Bristol, bounded by Mill-street, Wood-street, Market-street, and land of Amelia Brown, which lot of ground, after the death of the said Timothy Merrick, was adjudged agreeably to the laws of this commonwealth, to his daughter Ann Merrick, who was afterwards married to a certain Edward Dela Montanye, of Southwark, in the county of Philadelphia; And whereas, it