CHAPTER CLXXV.

An ACT authorizing Robert Allison, to convey a tract of land therein mentioned.

WHEREAS it has been represented to the legislature, that Agness Simpson was seized of a certain tract of land in Centre township, Indiana county, situate on Cherry run, containing one hundred and thirty acres, adjoining lands of William M'Kee and others, and being so thereof seized, intermarried with Robert Allison, of the county aforesaid, who in conjunction with and by the consent of his said wife, did sell the aforesaid tract of land to William Hamilton, of said county, for the sum of three hundred and twenty-five dollars, the greater part of which purchase money was paid during the life time of the said Agness: And whereas, the said Agness is since deceased, and there being no written evidence of the contract, which will enable the said Robert Allison to execute a deed to the said William Hamilton: Therefore,

SECT. I. Be it enacted by the senate and house of representatives of the commonwealth of Pennsylvania, in general assembly met, and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same, That R. Allison Robert Allison, of Indiana county, be, and he is hereby authorized and empowered, to execute to William Hamilton, of said county, such deed or other conveyance as may be necessary to vest in the said William Hamilton all the right, title, and interest, of the said Robert Allison and Agness his wife, of, in and to a certain tract of land in Indiana county, and empower d to execute a deed to Wm. Hamilton, for a tract of land in Indiana county, &c.

Centre township, situate on Cherry run, adjoining lands of William McKee and others, containing one hundred and thirty acres, be the same more or less, surveyed in pursuance of a warrant granted to Agness Simpson, late Agness Allison, deceased, bearing date the tenth day of April, one thousand seven hundred and ninety-three, which conveyance when executed, shall be as good and effectual in law, as if the same had been done by the said Robert and Agness, previous to the death of the said Agness.

CHAPTER CLXXVI.

An ACT enabling Elizabeth Wilson and George Spangler, a committee appointed by the court of common pleas, of York county, to convey part of a certain tract of land to James Patterson.

WHEREAS it appears by a certified copy of the proceedings of the court of common pleas of York county, that Elizabeth Wilson and George Spangler were appointed a committee to take care of the person and estate of Thomas Wilson, a lunatic, and that the said Thomas and James Patterson were jointly seized of a tract of two hundred and eighty-one acres and one hundred and forty-seven perches, situate in Chanceford township, in said county, as tenants in common, which for the mutual benefit of the said parties has been divided, but by reason of the lunacy of the said Thomas, he is unable to release or confirm to the said James the part allotted to him.

SECT. I. Be it enacted by the senate and house of representatives of the commonwealth of Pennsylvania, in general assembly met, and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same, That it shall and may be lawful for Elizabeth Wilson, and George Spangler, or the survivor of them, to make, execute, and deliver to James Patterson, of York county, yeoman, such deed or deeds, conveyance or conveyances, as may be necessary to convey, release, and assure to the said James, all the right, title, interest, and estate of Thomas Wilson, of the said county now a lunatic, to one hundred and thirty-two acres and one hundred and eleven perches, part of a larger tract of land situate in Chanceford township, in the county of York, heretofore held by the said Thomas and James, as tenants in common, adjoining lands of Joseph Reed and others, and such deeds, releases, or

G. Spangler and E. Wilson, &c. empowered to execute a sufficient deed for all the estate of Thomas Wilson, a lunatic, in a certain tract of land, &c.
