

cavalry, one copy of the Hand Book for Infantry ; and to each captain or commanding officer of any rifle company, one copy of the Hand Book for Riflemen ; and the officers who shall receive said books by virtue of this act, shall deliver the same to their successors in office whenever such succession may occur.

SECT. III. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That as soon as said books shall be delivered into the secretary's office, the governor shall draw his warrant on the state treasurer in favour of William Duane, for two thousand three hundred and sixty-three dollars to be paid out of any unappropriated money in the treasury.

How and when to be paid for.

JOHN TOD, Speaker

of the House of Representatives.

P. C. LANE, Speaker of the Senate.

APPROVED—the twenty-ninth day of March, one thousand eight hundred and thirteen.

SIMON SNYDER.

CHAPTER CLXXXIII.

An ACT detaching the Germantown, the first county, and Frankford troops of horse from the regiment composed of the cavalry of the city and county of Philadelphia.

SECT. I. BE it enacted by the senate and house of representatives of the commonwealth of Pennsylvania, in general assembly met, and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same, That the Germantown troop of cavalry, commanded by captain Riter, the first county troop of cavalry, commanded by captain Hass, and the Frankford troop, commanded by captain Norton be and they are hereby detached, except when called into actual service, from the regiment composed of the cavalry of the city and county of Philadelphia, established by an act granting certain privileges, and enlarging the regiment of artillery attached to the first brigade first division Pennsylvania militia, and for the better organization of the cavalry in the city and county of Philadelphia, passed the thirtieth day of March, one thousand eight hundred and eleven ; provided that the troops of horse aforesaid shall attach themselves to some regiment of Militia within the city or county of Philadelphia, and be subject to the same penalties, and under the same rules and regulations as the militia of this commonwealth, are by law subjected ; provided also, that nothing in this act contained shall be so construed as to affect the privileges of the regiment of cavalry, organized by the act

Detachment of some of the troops from the regiment of cavalry.

Proviso.

herein recited other than the detaching of the said companies from days of training.

JOHN TOD, Speaker
of the House of Representatives.

P. C. LANE, Speaker of the Senate.

APPROVED—the twenty-ninth day of March, one thousand eight hundred and thirteen.

SIMON SNYDER.

CHAPTER CLXXXIV.

A further SUPPLEMENT to an act, entitled, "An act to alter the judiciary system of this commonwealth," and to alter the times of holding the court of common pleas, court of quarter sessions of the peace, and orphans' court in and for the counties of Adams and Franklin."

SECT. I. BE it enacted by the senate and house of representatives of the commonwealth of Pennsylvania, in general assembly met, and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same, That from and after the next April term, in the county of Adams, the courts of common pleas, quarter sessions of the peace, and orphans' court, shall be holden in said county on the Mondays next succeeding the same courts in Cumberland county, and that the said courts continue one week; and the judges of the same are hereby authorized and empowered to adjourn said courts to such times and in such manner as is provided by the act to which this is supplementary.

Time of holding certain courts within Adams county, altered.

SECT. II. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That from and after the next April term in the county of Franklin, the same courts shall be holden in and for the said county on the Mondays next succeeding the same courts in the county of Adams, and that the same continue two weeks; and the judges of the court of quarter sessions of the peace, in and for the said county of Franklin, are hereby authorized and empowered to continue the sessions of said court during the whole of the first week of each and every term, or so many days as they shall deem necessary to do the business thereof, and that the judges of the court of common pleas of said county have the like powers with the like provisions as are given and provided for others by the second section of an act passed the twenty-eight day of March, one thousand eight hundred and eight, entitled, a further supplement to the act, entitled, "An act to alter the judiciary system of this commonwealth."

Time of holding certain courts within the county of Franklin changed.

SECT. III. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid,