

an order accordingly to the committee to sell the same at public sale, giving such notice thereof as the court may direct, returnable to the next or a subsequent term, and if on the return of the order of sale, the same be confirmed by the court, the said committee shall convey the whole interest, right and title of such lunatic, or person non compos mentis, in the estates so sold to the purchaser thereof. And the said committee shall annually thereafter exhibit on oath or affirmation to the said court, a statement of the application of the proceeds of said sale, to be afterwards filed and kept with the records of said court.

Committee of a lunatic to make an annual statement to the court, &c.

Committee to enter into recognizance, &c.

SECT. III. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That before any sale as aforesaid shall be made, the committee shall enter into recognizance with sufficient security before said court, conditioned for the faithful application of the proceeds of said sales to the purposes aforesaid, during the continuance of his or their guardianship, for their annually accounting as aforesaid, and for the faithful payment of the balance of said proceeds that may be in his or their hands, to his or their successor or successors, or to the heirs and legal representatives of said lunatic or person non compos mentis, at the termination of the guardianship of said committee.

The next of kin to any lunatic to have notice of such sales, &c.

SECT. IV. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That previously to the granting of any order to sell as aforesaid, the court may require notice of the said application to be given to the next of kin to such lunatic, or person non compos mentis, in order to ascertain whether any of the said next of kin would be willing to pay the debts of, or maintain said lunatic or person non compos mentis, or his or her family, or contribute in any manner thereto, or can shew any cause why the estate should not be sold according to the provisions of this act.
