CHAPTER LXXIX.

An ACT divorcing John Rose, and Martha his wife, from the bonds of matrimony.

WHEREAS it appears to the legislature, that Martha Rose, late Martha Taylor, was in the year one thousand seven hundred and ninety seven, lawfully joined in marriage to John Rose, and that, the said John Rose, at a court of Quarter Sessions, held at Somerset, for Somerset county, in the month of February, one thousand eight hundred and twelve, was convicted of the crime of horse stealing, and therefore was sentenced to undergo a servitude in the penitentiary house of Philadelphia for the term of five years, where he yet remains; and it seems proper under these circumstances to grant the said Martha a divorce for which she has petitioned; Therefore,

Commissioners report to the clerk of sessions.
