

CHAPTER XLIX.

An ACT divorcing Christian Heistand and Barbara, his wife, from the bonds of matrimony.

WHEREAS it has been represented to the legislature, that in the year one thousand eight hundred and thirteen, Christian Heistand and Barbara Reigelsbaugh, of the county of Lancaster, were joined in marriage, and that the said Barbara was within five months thereafter delivered of a male child, and that the parties immediately separated in consequence of the said birth, it being conceded by the parties that the said Christian was not the father of the said child: Therefore,

SECT. I. BE it enacted by the Senate, and House of Representatives, of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, in General Assembly met, and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same, That the marriage contract entered into by the said Christian Heistand and Barbara, his wife, late Barbara Reigelsbaugh, be, and the same is hereby dissolved, and the parties respectively set free and apart from all duties and obligations arising from the said contract, as fully and effectually as if they had never been joined in marriage.

JACOB HOLGATE, Speaker
of the House of Representatives.

JOHN TOD, Speaker of the Senate.

APPROVED—the first day of March, one thousand eight hundred and fifteen.

SIMON SNYDER.

CHAPTER L.

An ACT for the relief of certain brigade inspectors.

SECT. I. BE it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, in General Assembly met, and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same, That the accountant officers be, and they are hereby authorized and required, on the settlement of the accounts of the brigade inspectors respectively, who, under the orders of the governor of this state, actually marched the militia or volunteers from the bounds of their brigades, agreeably to said orders, to allow them for their reasonable expenses in marching from said bounds, until they reached the place of rendezvous or were discharged, and during their return to the places of their abode: Provided, That said expenses shall not in any case exceed two dollars per day in going and returning.

SECT. II. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That in all cases where detachments of militia or volunteers, during the months of August, September, October, November or December, one thousand eight hundred and fourteen, under calls of the governor, encamped or were quartered within the bounds of brig-

Reasonable compensation to be allowed to certain brigade inspectors.

Proviso.

Inspectors
acting as quarter masters, &c. to be compensated

Proviso.

ades to which they did not belong, by which the brigade inspector within whose bounds they were encamped or quartered, was necessarily subjected to the duties of deputy inspector, deputy quartermaster or deputy commissaries, the accountant officers are hereby authorized and required, in the settlement of their accounts, to allow them reasonable expenses for the time they were necessarily employed in the performance of said duties: Provided said expense shall not exceed two dollars per day.

JACOB HOLGATE, Speaker
of the House of Representatives.

JOHN TOD, Speaker of the Senate.

APPROVED—the first day of March, one thousand eight hundred and fifteen.

SIMON SNYDER.

CHAPTER LI.

An ACT for the relief of George Parson.

SECT. I. BE it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, in General Assembly met, and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same, That the state treasurer be, and he hereby is authorized and directed to pay to George Parson, or order, the sum of one hundred dollars, in full for a waggon horse, which died of a wound received by a bayonet, while in the service of this state, and attached to the volunteers and militia which marched from Harrisburg to Baltimore in September, one thousand eight hundred and fourteen.

JACOB HOLGATE, Speaker
of the House of Representatives.

JOHN TOD, Speaker of the Senate.

APPROVED—the first day of March, one thousand eight hundred and fifteen.

SIMON SNYDER.

CHAPTER LII.

An ACT declaring part of Broadhead's creek a public highway.

SECT. I. BE it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, in General Assembly met, and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same, That Broadhead's creek, from the mill of John Price, in Pike county, to the mouth of said creek, at Delaware river, in Northampton county, be, and the same is hereby declared a public highway for the