CHAPTER IX.

WHEREAS, the judges of the supreme court, sitting at Harrisburg, in pursuance of an act passed the twenty-eighth March, eighteen hundred and fourteen, entitled "An act relating to certain lands in Claverack township, late in the county of Luzerne, now in the county of Bradford," directed a re-survey to be made of the lands in dispute, in order to enable them to make a final decree, as the said act required: Therefore,

RESOLVED, by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, in General Assembly met, That the surveyor general be, and he hereby is authorized and directed to cause a re-survey to be made and returned, on or before the twenty-seventh day of May next, of such parts of the lands claimed by John Shepard and Benjamin Dorrance, as are erroneously or imperfectly described and delineated in the certificates which were granted for, and surveys made under the directions of the commissioners, by whom such certificates were issued, particularly shewing, not only the quantity, but setting forth by course and
