SECT. II. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That when fifty persons or more shall have subscribed eight hundred shares or more of the said stock, the said commissioners, or a majority of them may, or when the whole number of shares aforesaid shall be subscribed, they shall certify to the governor, under their hands, the names of the subscribers and the number of shares subscribed by each, whereupon he shall, by letters patent under his hand and seal of the state, create and erect the subscribers, and if the subscriptions be not full at the time, then also those who shall thereafter subscribe to the number aforesaid, into one body politic and corporate, in deed and in law, by the name, style and title of "The President, Managers and Company of the Waynesburg, Greencastle and Mercersburg Turnpike Road," and by the same name the said subscribers shall have perpetual succession, and all the privileges and franchises incident to a corporation, and shall be capable of taking and holding their capital stock and the increase and profits thereof, and of enlarging the same from time to time by new subscriptions, in such manner and form as they shall think proper, if such enlargement shall be found necessary to fulfil the intention of this act, and of purchasing, taking and holding to them and their successors and assigns, in fee simple, or for any lesser estate, all such lands, tenements, hereditaments and estate, real and personal, as shall be necessary to them in the prosecution of their works, and of suing and being sued, and of doing all and every other matter and thing which a corporation or body politic may lawfully do.

SECT. III. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That the commissioners herein before named shall, as soon as conveniently may be, after the said letters patent shall be obtained, give thirty days notice in the public papers aforesaid, of the time and place by them appointed for the said subscribers to meet, in order to organize the said corporation, and to choose, by a majority of votes of the said subscribers by ballot, to be delivered in person or by proxy duly authorised, one president, twelve managers, one treasurer, and such other officers as shall be deemed necessary to conduct the business of the said company until the first Monday of November in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and seventeen, and until like officers shall be chosen; and may make such by-laws, rules, orders and regulations as do not contravene the constitution and laws of the United States or of this commonwealth, and may be necessary for the well-governing the affairs of the said company: Provided always, That no person in his own right shall have more than fifteen votes at any election, or in determining any question arising at said meeting, whatever number of shares he or she may be entitled to, and that each person shall be entitled to one vote for every share by him or her held under that number. Proviso regulating the number of votes.

SECT. IV. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That the said company shall meet on the first Monday of November in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and seventeen, and on the first Monday of November in every year thereafter, at such place as shall be fixed by their by-laws, for the purpose of choosing managers and such other officers as aforesaid for the ensuing year, in manner aforesaid, and at such other times as they shall be summoned by the managers, in such manner and form as shall be prescribed by their by-laws. Annual meetings.

SECT. V. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That the president and managers first chosen as aforesaid, shall procure certificates for all the shares of the stock of the said company, and shall deliver one such certificate, signed by the president and countersigned by the treasurer, and sealed with the common seal of the said corporation, to each person for every share by him subscribed and held, he paying five dollars for each share; which certificate shall be transferable at his pleasure, in person, or by attorney duly authorised, in the presence of the president or treasurer, subject, however, to all payments due or to become due thereon; and the assignee holding any such certificate, having first caused the assignment to be entered in a book of the company to be kept for that purpose, shall be a member of the corporation, and for every certificate assigned to him as aforesaid, shall be entitled to one share of the capital stock and of all estates and emoluments of the company, and to vote as aforesaid at the meetings thereof. Certificates of stock to be given to subscribers, &c.

SECT. VI. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That the said president and managers shall meet at such times and places as shall be ordained by their by-laws, and when met seven members shall form a quorum, who, in the absence of the president, may choose a chairman, and shall keep minutes of their transactions fairly entered in a book, and a quorum being formed, they shall have full power and authority to appoint all such surveyors, engineers, superintendants and other artists and officers as they shall deem necessary to carry on their intended works, and to fix their salaries and wages, to ascertain the times when and manner and proportions in which the stockholders shall pay the monies due on their respective shares, to draw orders on the treasurer for all monies necessary to pay the salaries or wages of persons by them employed, and for materials: Provided, That such drafts do not exceed the sums deposited by the company, and such orders be signed by the president, or in his absence by a majority of a quorum: and generally to do all such other acts, matters and things as by this act and by their by-laws, rules, orders and regulations of the company they shall be authorised to do. 7 members constitute a quorum. Their powers, &c. Proviso limiting the amount of drafts, &c.

SECT. VII. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That if after thirty days notice, in such public papers at the discretion of the managers, as shall be best calculated to notify such stockholders, of the time and place appointed for the payment of any proportion or dividend of the said capital stock, in order to carry on the work, any stockholder shall neglect to pay such proportion or dividend at the place appointed, for the space of thirty days after the time so appointed, every such stockholder, or his assignee, shall, in addition to the dividend so called for, pay at the rate of two per centum per month for the delay of such payment, and if the same and additional penalty shall remain unpaid for such space of time, as that the accumulated penalty shall become equal to the sums before paid in part and on account of such shares, the same shall be forfeited to the said company, and may be sold to any person or persons willing to purchase, for such price as can be obtained for the same, or in default of payment by any stockholder of any such instalment as aforesaid, that the said president and managers may, at their election, cause suit to be brought in any court of competent jurisdiction for the recovery of the same, together with the penalty aforesaid: Provided always, That no stockholder, whether original subscriber or assignee, shall be entitled to vote at any election, or at any general or special meeting of the said company, unless the whole sum due and payable as aforesaid on the share or shares by him held at the time of such election or general or special meeting of the said company, shall have been fully paid and discharged as aforesaid.

SECT. VIII. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That it shall and may be lawful to and for the said president and managers, their superintendants, surveyors, engineers, artists and chain bearers, to enter into and upon all and every the lands, tenements and enclosures in, through and over which the said intended turnpike road may be thought proper to pass, and to examine the ground most proper for the purpose, and the quarries and beds of stone and gravel and other materials in the vicinity, that will be necessary in making and constructing the said road, and to survey, lay down, ascertain, mark and fix such route or track of the said road, upon such practicable ground as will be shortest in distance between the several points of the said road, mentioned in this act, and to open, make and construct said road in the manner hereinafter directed.

SECT. IX. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That the said president and managers, by and with their superintendants, engineers, artists, workmen and laborers, with their tools, instruments, carts, waggons and other carriages and beasts of draught or burthen, may enter upon the lands over, contiguous and near to the route of the said intended road, first giving notice to the owners or occupiers thereof, and afterwards doing as little damage thereto as possible, and repairing any breaches they may make in the inclosures thereof, and making amends for any damage that may be done to the improvements thereon; the amount whereof, if the parties do not agree, shall be assessed by any three disinterested freeholders, to be appointed by any disinterested justice of the peace of the county where such damage may be done, and upon tender of the appraised value, may dig, take and carry away any stone, gravel or other materials there being most conveniently situate for making or repairing the said road: Provided, That if the owner of any land shall suffer damage by the road passing over the same, such owner may, within one year, make application to the court of quarter sessions of the proper county, which shall appoint six disinterested freeholders, who shall assess and determine, and under their oaths or affirmations, report to the said court what damage such owner shall have sustained by reason of the said road passing over the same, taking into view in such assessment, and making due and full allowance for all advantages accruing, or likely to accrue, to such owner by reason of so making and establishing the same.

SECT. X. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That the said president, managers and company, shall cause a road to be laid out as aforesaid, of not less than fifty nor more than sixty feet in width, except over the north and south mountains, and there of at least thirty feet in width, and at least twenty feet thereof to be made an artificial road, bedded with stone, gravel or any other hard substance, well compacted together, and of sufficient depth to secure a solid foundation to the same, and the said road shall be faced with gravel or stone pounded, or other small hard substance, in such manner as to secure a firm, and as near as the materials will admit of, an even surface, and so nearly level in its progress as that it shall in no place rise or fall more than will form an angle of four degrees with a horizontal line, and shall forever after maintain and keep the same in good and perfect order and repair, and the said president, managers and company shall erect permanent bridges over all the streams of water crossing the said road.

SECT. XI. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That so soon as the said president, managers and company shall have perfected the said road for the distance of five miles aforesaid, and also when they shall have completed each succeeding section of five miles, likewise when the remainder shall be finished, they shall give notice thereof to the governor, who shall thereupon forthwith appoint three disinterested persons to view and examine the same, and to report to him in writing, whether the said road is so far executed in a masterly and workmanlike manner, according to the true intent and meaning of this act, and if their report shall, in either case, be in the affirmative, then the governor shall, by licence under his hand and the lesser seal of this commonwealth, permit and suffer the said president, managers and company to fix and erect so many gates or turnpikes upon and across the said road as will be necessary and sufficient to enable them to collect the tolls and duties hereinafter granted to the said company, from all persons travelling on the same with horses, cattle, sheep, swine and carriages: Provided, That no toll be demanded or taken from any person passing or repassing from one part of his or her farm to duty, and if he or they shall be convicted of the offence charged in the said inquisition, the said court shall give such judgment, according to the nature and aggravation of the neglect, as they in their discretion shall judge proper: Provided the fine, in no instance, shall be less than twenty dollars, nor exceed one hundred dollars, and the fines so imposed shall be recovered in the same manner as fines for misdemeanors are usually recovered in the said county, and shall be paid to the supervisors of the highways of the township wherein the offence was committed, to be applied to repairing the highways and public roads therein.

Penalty on attempts to evade the toll.

SECT. XIV. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That if any person or persons whosoever, owning, riding in, or driving any sulkey, chair, chaise, phaeton, cart, waggon, wain, sleigh, sled or other carriage of burden or pleasure, riding or leading any horse, mare or gelding, or driving any sheep, hogs or other cattle, shall therewith pass through any private gates or bars, or along or over any private passage way or other ground adjoining any turnpike or gate erected, or which shall be erected in pursuance of this act, with an intent to defraud the said company, and avoid the payment of the toll or duty for passing through any such gate or turnpike, or if any person or persons shall, with such intent, take off, or cause to be taken off, any horse, mare or gelding, or other cattle, from any sulkey, chair, chaise, phaeton, cart, waggon, wain, sleigh, sled or other carriage of burden or pleasure, or practise any other fraudulent means or device, with the intent that the payment of any such toll or duty may be evaded or lessened, all and every such person or persons, in all and every or any of the ways or manners aforesaid offending, shall, for every such offence respectively, forfeit and pay to the president, managers and company of the said turnpike road, any sum not exceeding ten dollars, to be sued for and recovered with costs of suit, before any justice of the peace, in like manner, and subject to the same rules and regulations, as debts of a similar amount may be now or hereafter sued for and recovered.

How recovered.

Accounts annually to be submitted to the stockholders.

SECT. XV. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That the president and managers of the said company shall keep fair and just accounts of all monies received by them from the said commissioners and from the subscribers to the said undertaking on account of the several subscriptions, and of all penalties for delay in the payment thereof, and the amount of the profits on the shares which may be forfeited as aforesaid, and also of all monies by them expended in the prosecution of their said works, and shall once at least in every year submit such accounts to a general meeting of the stockholders, until the said accounts shall be completed, and until all the costs, charges and expenses of effecting the same shall be fully paid and discharged and the aggregate amount of such expenses shall be liquidated and ascertained, and if upon such liquidation, or when the capital stock of said company shall be nearly expended, it shall be found that the said capital stock will be insufficient to complete the said road according to the true intent and meaning of this act, it shall and may be lawful for the said president, managers and company, at a stated or special meeting to be convened according to the provisions of this act or their own by-laws, to increase the number of shares to such extent as shall be deemed sufficient to accomplish the work, and to receive and demand the monies subscribed for such shares, in like manner and under like penalties as are herein before provided for the original subscription, or as shall be provided by their by-laws.

SECT. XVI. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That the said president, managers and company shall also keep a just and true account of all the monies received by their several and respective collectors of tolls at the several and respective gates or turnpikes on the said road, from the beginning to the end thereof, and shall make and declare a dividend of the clear profits and income thereof among the stockholders, all contingent costs and charges being first deducted, and shall, on the first Monday in November and May in every year, publish the half-yearly dividend aforesaid, and the time when and place where the same will be paid, and shall cause the same to be paid accordingly.

SECT. XVII. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That the said president and managers shall, at the end of every year after the said road shall have been completed, lay before the general assembly, an abstract of their accounts, shewing the whole amount of capital expended in the prosecution of the said work, and of the income and profits arising from the said tolls for and during the said respective periods, together with an exact account of the costs and charges of keeping the said road in repair, and all other contingent costs and charges, that the clear annual income and profits thereof may be known and ascertained; and if at the end of one year after the said first section of five miles, and each like succeeding section of the said road shall have been completed, it shall appear from the average profits, that the clear income will not yield a dividend of six per cent. per annum on the whole capital stock of the said company so expended, then it shall and may be lawful for the president, managers and company to increase the tolls herein before allowed, so much upon each and every allowance thereof as will raise the said dividend up to six per centum per annum, and at the end of every year after the said road shall have been completed, they shall render to the general assembly a like abstract of their accounts, and if at any time the said clear income and profits shall exceed a dividend of nine per centum per annum, then the said toll shall be so reduced as to reduce the said dividend down to nine per centum per annum.

SECT. XVIII. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That the said president and managers shall cause posts to be erected, and continued, at the intersection of every public road intersecting the said turnpike road, with a board and index-hand pointing to the direction of such road, on both sides whereof shall be inscribed in legible characters, the name of the town, village or place to which such road leads, and the distances thereof in measured or computed miles.

SECT. XIX. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That the said company shall cause mile stones to be placed on the side of the said road, and also cause to be affixed at each gate, a printed list of the rates of toll which may lawfully be demanded, for the information of travellers and others using the said road, and if any person or persons shall wilfully deface or destroy the said posts, boards, index-hands or mile-stones as aforesaid, or shall without permission of the acting superintendent of the said road, throw out upon the said road, or within the limits thereof, and shall suffer to remain for the space of one day, any mould, dirt, shavings, weeds or rubbish of any kind, such person or persons being convicted thereof by the evidence of one or more credible disinterested witness or witnesses, before any justice of the peace of that county in which the offence shall have been committed, he, she or they shall be adjudged by the said justice to pay a fine not exceeding five dollars, to be recovered with costs as debts of equal amount are or may be by law recoverable, which fine, when recovered, shall be paid by the said justice to the treasurer of the said company, for the use of the company.

Mile stones, &c.

Penalty on defacing, &c.

Mode of recovery.

SECT. XX. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That all waggoners and drivers of carriages of all kinds, whether of burden or pleasure, using the said road, shall, except when passing by a carriage of slower draught, keep their horses and carriages on the right hand side of the said road in the passing direction, leaving the other side of the road free and clear for other carriages to pass ; and if any driver shall offend against this provision, he shall forfeit and pay any sum not exceeding two dollars, to any person who shall be so obstructed in his passage and will sue for the same, to be recovered with costs before any justice, in the same manner as debts of equal amount are or may be by law recoverable.

Direction to waggoners.

SECT. XXI. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That if the said company shall not proceed to carry on the said work within five years after the passing of this act, or shall not within ten years thereafter complete the said road, according to the true intent and meaning of this act, then, in either of those cases, all and singular the rights, privileges, liberties and franchises hereby granted to the said company shall revert to this commonwealth.

Work to commence within 5 and completed within 10 years.
