OF THE

GENERAL ASSEMBLY

OF

PENNSYLVANIA.

CHAPTER I.

AN ACT

To provide for filling the vacancy in the Office of State Treasurer, occasioned by the resignation of William Findlay, late State Treasurer.

WHEREAS it is declared by the fifth section of the sixth article of the constitution of this commonwealth, that the State Treasurer shall be appointed annually by the members of both houses. And whereas by the resignation of William Findlay, late state treasurer, that office has become vacant:

Therefore,

SECT. 1. BE it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in General Assembly met, and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same, That the members of both houses shall meet in the chamber of the House of Representatives, on Monday the eighth instant, at twelve o'clock, and then and there appoint a State Treasurer, to continue in office until the second day of January next; that each house shall, previous to such appointment, choose a teller, and furnish the other house with a minute of such choice; and that the Speaker of Senate shall be the president of the meeting of the members so to be assembled for the purpose aforesaid; and it shall be the duty of the said tellers respectively to take down in writing the name of every member voting at such election, and that of the person for whom he shall vote, and make report thereof to their respective houses, in order that the same may be entered on their minutes; and when it shall appear that any person has been duly elected, duplicate certificates of such election shall be made out and signed by the president of the said meeting, and by each of the said tellers, one copy whereof shall be sent to the person elected, and the other shall be filed and recorded in the Secretary's office of this commonwealth.

State Treasurer to be appointed.

To take an oath or affirmation, and give security.

SECT. 2. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That the Treasurer who shall be appointed according to the provisions of this act, before he enters on the duties of his office, shall take an oath or affirmation, and give bond with sureties in the sum and manner prescribed by the fortieth section of the act, entitled "An act to amend and consolidate the several acts relating to the settlement of the public accounts and the payment of the public monies, and for other purposes," passed the thirtieth day of March one thousand eight hundred and eleven.

WILLIAM DAVIDSON, Speaker
of the House of Representatives.

ISAAC WEAVER,
Speaker of the Senate.
