

CHAPTER LXVIII.

AN ACT

Authorising the sale of the real estate of Richard Chester, deceased.

SECT. 1. BE it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in General Assembly met, and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same, That Jacob Ernst, administrator de bonis non with the will annexed, of Richard Chester, late of the county of York, deceased, be and he is hereby authorised to sell all the right, interest and estate which belonged to the said deceased, or was vested in him at his decease, in any real estate lying and being in this Commonwealth, and sufficient assurances in law to make to any purchaser or purchasers; the proceeds of such sales to be applied, in the legal course of administration, to the discharge of the deceased's debts, and such charges as the orphans' court of the said county shall allow, and the residue if any to be applied according to the last will and testament of the deceased: Provided, That the said Jacob Ernst, before he proceed to sell and convey any part of the said real estate, enter into a recognizance with sufficient surety in the said court, for the faithful discharge of the powers conferred, and the several duties imposed and required by this act; and in case of his decease, before he shall have fully discharged such duties, that his legal representatives shall render a just and true account of his administration, and shall pay over and deliver to his successor in the administration of said estate, all monies and securities that may be remaining according to such account.

Proviso.

WILLIAM DAVIDSON, Speaker
of the House of Representatives.

ISAAC WEAVER,
Speaker of the Senate.

APPROVED—the third day of March, one thousand eight hundred and eighteen.

WILLIAM FINDLAY.

CHAPTER LXIX.

AN ACT

In aid of the Harrisburg Academy.

SECT. 1. BE it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in General