

CHAPTER XLI.

AN ACT

To vest in Cynthia Bennet and Richard Denny, a certain escheated estate therein mentioned.

WHEREAS, it is represented to the legislature that James Lang, late of the borough of Brownsville, in the county of Fayette, died intestate without issue or any known kindred, seized of certain real and personal estate supposed to have escheated to this commonwealth. And whereas, from declarations made a few hours previous to the death of the said James Lang, as well as oftentimes before, that it was his full determination to give at his death all he had, and what he should have acquired, to Cynthia Bennet and her brother Richard Denny, children of the wife of the said James Lang by a former husband, whose mother is also dead, and by whom it appears said James Lang got the greater part of said estate. And whereas, the said Richard left the state of Pennsylvania a number of years since, and it is uncertain at this time whether he is dead or living:

Therefore,

SECT. 1. BE it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in General Assembly met, and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same, That all the right, title, interest, claim and demand of this commonwealth, of, in and to the estate real, personal and mixed of James Lang, late of the borough of Brownsville, Fayette county, deceased, who died intestate without issue or any known kindred, together with the rents, issues and profits due thereon, be, and the same is hereby vested in Cynthia Bennet and her brother Richard Denny, their heirs and assigns, as tenants in common. Estate late of James Lang vested.

SECT. 2. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That the said Cynthia Bennet, her heirs or assigns, before she or they shall proceed to receive, sue for and recover the said estate, according to the provisions of this act, shall enter into a recognizance in the orphan's court of Fayette county, conditioned for the payment of one moiety of the said estate real and personal to the said Richard Denny, or his legal representatives, first allowing a proportionable part of all costs and expenses that may necessarily accrue in prosecuting said claim: Provided, That nothing in this act contained, shall in any wise prejudice the rights of individuals or affect any other title to the said real and personal es- Recognizance to be given. Provide.

tate, than that which this commonwealth has or might have by reason of said escheat.

REES HILL, Speaker of the House of Representatives.

ISAAC WEAVER,
Speaker of the Senate.

APPROVED—the eighteenth day of February, one thousand eight hundred and nineteen.

WILLIAM FINDLAY.

CHAPTER XLII.

AN ACT

Designating the different kinds of arms to be received from the United States in part of the quota of Pennsylvania.

SECT. 1. BE it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in General Assembly met, and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same, That the Governor be, and he hereby is authorised to receive from the United States, the quota of arms due to this commonwealth under the act of congress, for arming and equipping the whole body of militia, in the following proportions, to wit. Six field pieces of six pound ball, with their carriages and implements complete; five hundred rifles and the remainder in muskets. And the said arms shall be received at, and placed in the state arsenal at Meadville.

REES HILL, Speaker of the House of Representatives.

ISAAC WEAVER,
Speaker of the Senate.

APPROVED—the eighteenth day of February, one thousand eight hundred and nineteen.

WILLIAM FINDLAY.