CHAPTER CLI.

AN ACT

To enable the heirs of David Rutter, Ruth Anna Lindley, John Clement Stocker and Mary Catharine Stocker, to make partition of certain lands held by them as tenants in common.

WHEREAS it has been represented to the legislature that David Rutter, Ruth Anna Lindley, John Clement Stocker and Mary Catharine his wife, died seized as tenants in common, of various town lots and tracts of improved and unimproved land in the counties of Berks, Chester, Montgomery and Wayne, in the state of Pennsylvania, and that John Clement Stocker, Mary Catharine his wife, and Ruth Anna Lindley, died seized as tenants in common, of certain town lots in the borough of Pottsgrove and county of Montgomery. And whereas it is thought for the interest of the heirs, in whom the said property is now vested, that partition of the same should be made, but as the said heirs are numerous, and generally either minors or married women, and the lands are situated in different parts of the state, and are incumbered with rights for raising of iron ore and other reservations, a
