CHAPTER LXIV.

AN ACT

Authorising a partition of the real estate of George Bryan, Esquire, late of the city of Philadelphia, deceased, and for other purposes.

WHEREAS it has been represented to the Legislature, that George Bryan, esquire, late of the city of Philadelphia, deceased, died possessed of five tracts of unimproved land, situated when surveyed, in the county of Northumberland, now in the counties of Armstrong and M'Kean, and that in consequence of the derangement in mind of one of the daughters, and the death in a state of insolvency of one of the sons of the said George, a partition of the said land cannot conveniently be made; and, whereas, it has been represented that George Bryan, of the borough of Harrisburg, one of the sons of the said George Bryan, esquire, deceased, has had the sole management and care of his sister, who is thus unhappily diseased for many years, and still continues the care and management of her, and that he has advanced his own monies for her support.

Therefore,

SECT. 1. BE it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in General Assembly met, and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same, That Jacob Spangler and Thomas Smith, of the borough
