

CHAPTER CXXIII.

AN ACT

To run and mark the line between Luzerne and Lycoming counties.

Commissioners to run the line.

SECT. 1. BE it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in General Assembly met, and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same, That Isaac A. Chapman of Luzerne county, and Jacob Antes of Lycoming county, be, and they are hereby appointed commissioners for the purpose of running and marking the line between Luzerne and Lycoming: Beginning at the corner of Columbia county in the line of Luzerne and Lycoming, thence along the line northerly dividing the counties aforesaid, to the south-east corner of Bradford county, agreeably to the provisions of the several acts of the general assembly made and provided.

Commissioners to make three drafts.

One to be sent to the Sur. Gen.

Expenses
how paid.

SECT. 2. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That it shall be the duty of the said commissioners on or before the first day of September next, to survey and mark the line aforesaid agreeably to the provisions of the first section of this act, and to make three drafts of the same on a scale of two miles and one half to the inch, inserting the courses and distances on the drafts in words at full length, one of which they shall deposit in the prothonotary's office of Luzerne county, one in the prothonotary's office of Lycoming county, which shall thereafter be considered a public record, and the line so run and marked shall be the established boundary between the counties aforesaid, and the third draft they shall transmit to the Surveyor General for the use of his office, and the said commissioners shall receive each three dollars per day for the time they may be necessarily employed in performing the duties enjoined in this act, and shall be allowed a reasonable compensation for chain bearers and axe men which they may employ in executing the same, and the expenses incurred in running and marking the said line shall be paid by the county commissioners of the counties aforesaid, each an equal half part thereof.

County commissioners to furnish war-rantee names of unseated lands.

SECT. 3. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That it shall be the duty of the county commissioners of the two counties respectively, to furnish each other with the warrantee names of all the tracts of unseated land that may be taken from the one county and fall into the other, in the final determination of the said line: Provided nevertheless, That each county shall be privileged to collect all arrearages of taxes on land affected by the line aforesaid, having been levied prior to the establishment of the same.

JOSEPH LAWRENCE, Speaker of the House of Representatives.

WILLIAM MARKS, Junior,
Speaker of the Senate.

APPROVED—the twenty-eighth day of March, one thousand eight hundred and twenty.

WILLIAM FINDLAY.

CHAPTER CXXIV.

AN ACT

For the relief of the poor of the townships of Germantown, Bristol, Moyamensing, Blockley and Kingsessing, in the county of Philadelphia, and for other purposes.

SECT. 1. BE it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in General Assembly met, and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same, That so much of the twenty-first section of "An act for the consolidation and amendment of the laws as far as they respect the poor of the city of Philadelphia, the district of Southwark, and the township of the Northern Liberties," passed the twenty-ninth of March, one thousand eight hundred and three, as relates to the aldermen and justices of the peace granting orders for the removal of paupers, be, and the same is hereby extended to the townships of Germantown, Bristol, Moyamensing, Blockley and Kingsessing, in the county of Philadelphia. Certain laws extended.

SECT. 2. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That so much of the first section of "An act laying a tax on dogs in certain counties, and for other purposes," as far as they respect the dog tax of the city of Philadelphia, the district of Southwark, and the township of the Northern Liberties, passed the twenty-third day of March, one thousand eight hundred and nine, as relates to granting the dog tax for the benefit of the poor, be, and the same is hereby extended to the township of Germantown, in the county of Philadelphia: Provided, That the damage sustained by the owners of sheep destroyed by any dog or dogs in the townships of the Northern Liberties and Germantown, be paid by Dog tax applied to the maintenance of the poor. Proviso.