

CHAPTER XLVI.

AN ACT

To vest two tracts of land in Westmoreland county, in trustees for the uses of the last will of the Reverend Theodore Browsers, deceased.

WHEREAS the Reverend Theodore Browsers, late of Westmoreland county, deceased, by his last will devised two tracts of land in the said county to the priests, who should succeed him in the cure and pastoral charge of the Roman Catholic congregation of the said county, in trust for the uses mentioned in the said will, and it is represented that the said trust has not been faithfully executed but abused :

For remedy whereof,

SECT. 1. BE it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in General Assembly met, and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same, That two tracts of land situated in Westmoreland county, one called "Sportsman Hall," and the other "O'Neal's Victory," which are mentioned and described in the last will of the Reverend Theodore Browsers, late of the said county, deceased, be, and they hereby are vested in Dennis Connor, Edward Chevelin, Frederink Kintz, Conrad Henry and Henry Coon, trustees of the Roman Catholic Church in Westmoreland county, and their successors, who shall be duly and regularly appointed according to the rules of the said congregation, in trust for the uses mentioned and declared in the last will and testament of the said Reverend Theodore Browsers, deceased.

JOHN GILMORE, Speaker

WILLIAM MARKS, Junior,
Speaker of the Senate.
