

said sums shall be paid to the treasurer of the said Philadelphia society, and nothing contained in the said act to which this is a supplement, shall be construed to alter or abolish the organization of the said Philadelphia society as at present incorporated, but all things directed by the said act to be done and performed, in relation to the receipts, expenditures and application of the monies directed to be paid to the treasurer thereof, or any matters or things required consistently with the rules and regulations of the said society as at present incorporated, shall be so done and performed by the officers, committees or persons appointed by the said society, agreeably to its present organization, bye-laws and rules, as fully and effectually as if done and performed by the directors and other officers of societies, established by virtue of the act to which this is a supplement.

JOHN GILMORE, Speaker
of the House of Representatives.

WILLIAM MARKS, Junior,
Speaker of the Senate.

APPROVED—March the thirtieth, one thousand eight hundred and twenty-one.

JOSEPH HIESTER.

CHAPTER XCI.

AN ACT

Relating to proceedings in the action of account render.

SECT. 1. BE it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in General Assembly met, and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same, That the act, entitled "An act regulating arbitrations," passed the twentieth of March, eighteen hundred and ten, and the several supplements thereto, shall be deemed to extend to actions of account render, and the arbitrators appointed by virtue thereof shall hear, and a majority of them determine on the whole merits of the cause, and report the balance due by either party to the other, and shall also make and annex to their report, from the account of the parties, their allegations and proofs, such an account between them as they shall think just, which account shall result in the balance reported in their award.

JOHN GILMORE, Speaker
of the House of Representatives,

WILLIAM MARKS, Junior,
Speaker of the Senate.

APPROVED—March the thirtieth, one thousand eight hundred and twenty-one.

JOSEPH HIESTER,

CHAPTER XCII.

AN ACT

Relative to guardians of minor children.

SECT. 1. BE it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in General Assembly met, and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same, That the several and respective orphans' courts within this commonwealth, may whenever they deem it proper, require bond with good and sufficient security from all and every guardian or guardians of a minor child or children, whether such guardian has been or shall be appointed by the court, chosen by the minor with the approbation of the court, or created by the last will and testament of a deceased testator, which bonds shall be considered in trust for all persons interested, and shall be taken and filed in the orphans' court in the name of the commonwealth of Pennsylvania, with a condition, and in the manner and form following, viz. The condition of this obligation is such, that if the above bounden guardian of a minor child, of late of township, in the county of deceased, shall at least once in every three years, and whenever required by the court render a just and true account to the orphan's court of the county aforesaid, (according to the directions of the acts of assembly in such cases made and provided,) of the management of the property and estate of the said minor under his care, and shall also deliver up the said property agreeably to the decree or order of the said court or the directions of law, and shall in all respects faithfully perform the duties of guardian, then the above obligation shall be void and of no effect, or else to re-

Guardians to give bond with security &c.

To render a just and true account.