

Penalty on injuring the works, &c.

SECT. 7. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That if any person or persons shall wilfully destroy or injure in any manner, the pipes, cisterns, aqueducts, reservoirs, hydrants, or any of them, or any of the works of said company, erected in pursuance of this act, or shall wilfully corrupt, or otherwise render unwholesome, the stream of water which shall be conveyed and brought into the town of Loudoun, by the said company, he, she, or they, shall, on being thereof convicted before any justice of the peace, in and for the county of Franklin, by the oath or affirmation of one or more credible witnesses, pay a fine not exceeding twenty dollars, one half to the use of the poor of the county, and the other half to the informer, and shall moreover remain liable for all damages to the company.

JOHN GILMORE, Speaker
of the House of Representatives.

WILLIAM MARKS, Junior,
Speaker of the Senate.

APPROVED—March the thirty-first, one thousand eight hundred and twenty-one.

JOSEPH HIESTER.

CHAPTER CI.

AN ACT

To authorise an assignment of the concerns of the Philadelphia and Pittsburg Transporting company.

SECT. 1. BE it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in General Assembly met, and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same, That the court of common pleas of the county of Philadelphia, upon petition to them by any of the creditors of the Philadelphia and Pittsburg Transporting company, are hereby authorised and required to issue a citation to the managers of said company, requiring them to appear before the said court, and shew cause why the said managers ought not to assign over to assignees all books, vouchers or other writing, which are the evidence of any debt or debts due and owing to said company, and also all goods and chattels belonging thereto, for the use of the creditors of the said company.

The court to issue a citation to the managers, &c

SECT. 2. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That the said court upon due proof made to them that the said citation has been served upon the said managers, or a majority of them, shall proceed to hear and examine the matter, and if it should appear that the said managers have not fully accounted to the creditors of said company to the extent of the rights, credits, goods and chattels of the said corporation, or if the said managers refuse to appear, or neglect or refuse to exhibit to the said court a full and satisfactory account of all books and vouchers, and of all debts due the said company, then and in such case the said court shall issue their attachment against such managers upon whom the citation was served, and cause the same to be enforced and executed, until the said managers shall deliver up all books, vouchers or evidences of debt belonging to the said company.

The court to hear and examine, and on refusal or neglect to compel a delivery of books, &c.

SECT. 3. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That the said court shall upon the return of the citation, or at such other time to which they shall adjourn the matter, appoint assignees on behalf of the creditors of the said company, to whom all the goods and chattels, rights and credits, books, vouchers and evidences of debt belonging to the said corporation shall be assigned.

Court to appoint assignees.

SECT. 4. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That the said assignees shall account to, and settle with the creditors of the said corporation, in the same manner and under the same regulations that the assignees of insolvent debtors are required by law to account to, and settle with the creditors of such insolvents.

Assignees to account, &c.

JOHN GILMORE, Speaker
of the House of Representatives.

WILLIAM MARKS, Junior,
Speaker of the Senate.

APPROVED—March the thirty-first, one thousand eight hundred and twenty-one.

JOSEPH HIESTER.

CHAPTER CII.

A SUPPLEMENT

To the act, entitled "An act to enable the Governor of this commonwealth to incorporate a company for making an artificial road from Erie to Waterford."

SECT. 1. BE it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in General