Section 1. Be it enacted, &c., That section one of an act, approved the seventeenth day of July, one thousand nine hundred nineteen (Pamphlet Laws, nine hundred ninety-two), entitled "An act to amend the act, approved the fifteenth day of April, one thousand nine hundred fifteen (Pamphlet Laws, one hundred and thirty-two), entitled 'An act relative to the burial of the bodies of certain indigent deceased widows at the county expense,' as amended; requiring county commissioners to pay from the county funds the expenses of burial of all widows of honorably discharged soldiers, sailors, and marines legally resident within the county; authorizing the county commissioners to make inquiries and investigations; providing for payments to persons who buried such bodies; and requiring public officers and officers and agents of institutions to report deaths of such widows," which reads as follows:—

Section 1, act of July 17, 1919
(P. L. 992), cited for amendment.

"Section 1. Be it enacted, &c., That the county commissioners in each county are hereby authorized and directed to expend the sum of seventy-five dollars ($75) from the county funds toward the funeral expenses of any widow of any person who served in the Army or Navy of the United States during any war in which the United States was engaged; or served in the Army or Navy of the United States where a state or condition of war existed in the United States, or any foreign country or territory, or upon the high seas; or who was in active service in the militia of the State of Pennsylvania, under and in pursuance of any proclamations issued by the Governor, during the Civil War, and not duly mustered into the service of the United States; and who was honorably discharged or relieved from such service, upon due proof being made of such facts: Provided, however, That the county commissioners shall not contribute any moneys toward the funeral expenses of any such soldier, sailor, or marine, where the total expense of any such funeral, including said allowance of seventy-five dollars, shall exceed two hundred and fifty dollars," is hereby amended to read as follows:—

Section 1. Be it enacted, &c., That the county commissioners in each county are hereby authorized and directed to expend the sum of seventy-five dollars ($75) from the county funds towards the funeral expenses of any widow of any person who served in the Army or Navy of the United States during any war in which the United States was engaged; or served in the Army or Navy of the United States where a state or condition of war existed in the United States, or any foreign country or territory, or upon the high seas; or who was in active service of the militia of the State of Pennsylvania, under and in pursuance of any proclamations issued by the Governor, during the Civil War, and not duly mustered into the service of the United States; and who was honorably discharged or relieved from such service, upon due proof being made of such facts: Provided, however, That the county commissioners shall not contribute any moneys toward the funeral expenses of any such widow of a soldier, sailor, or marine where the total expense of any such funeral, including said allowance of seventy-five dollars, shall exceed three hundred dollars.
