AN ACT

To amend section three of the act, approved the thirty-first day of March, one thousand nine hundred and twenty-seven (Pamphlet Laws, ninety-one), entitled "An act relating to municipal indebtedness; imposing certain powers and duties upon the Department of Internal Affairs, and the officers of counties, cities of the third class, boroughs, towns, townships, school districts of the second, third, and fourth classes, and poor districts, in connection with proceedings to incur and increase indebtedness; and the establishing and maintaining of sinking funds; fixing the maximum maturity of refunding bonds; and providing penalties," by authorizing the Department of Internal Affairs to charge and collect fees for examining and approving proceedings relating to municipal indebtedness.

Section 1. Be it enacted, &c., That section three of the act, approved the thirty-first day of March, one thousand nine hundred and twenty-seven (Pamphlet Laws, ninety-one), entitled "An act relating to municipal indebtedness; imposing certain powers and duties upon the Department of Internal Affairs, and the officers of counties, cities of the third class, boroughs, towns, townships, school districts of the second, third, and fourth classes, and poor districts, in connection with proceedings to incur and increase indebtedness; and the establishing and maintaining of sinking funds; fixing the maximum maturity of refunding bonds; and providing penalties," is hereby amended to read as follows:

Municipalities.

Section 3, act of March 31, 1927 (P. L. 91), amended.

Section 3. The mayor of each city of the third class, the burgess of each borough or town, the president of the board of county commissioners of each county, the president of the township commissioners of each first class township, the chairman of the board of township supervisors of each second class township, the president of each school board, and the president or chairman of the board of poor directors or overseers of each poor district, which shall have any proceedings for the incurring or increasing of indebtedness, except notes issued in anticipation of revenue for not more than one year, shall, before any bonds or evidence of indebtedness are actually issued and sold, certify to the Department of Internal Affairs a complete and accurate copy of the proceedings had for such incurring or increasing of indebtedness, together with the assessed valuation of the property subject to taxation within the respective municipality, the total amount of the existing indebtedness, [and] the several amounts claimed as permitted deductions in ascertaining the real indebtedness of such municipality, and a fee of ten dollars ($10.00), plus an additional fee of one-half of one mill on each dollar of the aggregate par value of bonds, certificates, or evidences of indebtedness to be issued and sold by such municipality. All fees received hereunder shall be paid by the Department of Internal Affairs into the State Treasury, through the Department of Revenue.

Municipal officers to report before issue of securities.

Fees.

Penalty for failure to report.

Any officer of any such municipality, who shall fail or refuse to certify any such proceedings or other facts as required by this section, or who shall wilfully certify any such proceedings or facts which are false or inaccurate, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction thereof, shall be sentenced to pay a fine not exceeding five hundred dollars, or to undergo imprisonment for a period not exceeding six months, or both.

When effective.

Section 2. This act shall become effective immediately upon the date of its final enactment.
