

A PROCLAMATION BY THE GOVERNOR

In the Name and by Authority of the COMMONWEALTH OF PENNSYLVANIA

GOVERNOR'S OFFICE

Harrisburg, Pa.

A PROCLAMATION

I, GIFFORD PINCHOT, Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, have caused this proclamation to issue, and in compliance with the provisions of article four, section fifteen of the Constitution thereof, do hereby give notice that I have filed in the office of the Secretary of the Commonwealth, with my objections thereto, the following bills passed by both Houses of the General Assembly, viz:

House Bill No. 1418, entitled "An act declaring and adopting the azalea nudiflora, also known as the wild azalea, wild honeysuckle and pinxter bloom, as the Pennsylvania State flower."

Senate Bill No. 1, entitled "An act authorizing counties of the second class and cities of the second class to appropriate sums of money to aid in defraying expenses of entertaining the stated convention of the National Encampment of the United Spanish War Veterans in the year one thousand nine hundred and thirty-four."

Senate Bill No. 3, entitled "An act authorizing cities of the first, second and third classes to defray the expenses of National encampments of certain organizations of veterans."

Senate Bill No. 144, entitled "An act to amend section two of the act, approved the twenty-ninth day of April, one thousand nine hundred and fifteen (Pamphlet Laws, two hundred), entitled 'An act creating, in counties having over eight hundred thousand, and less than one million five hundred thousand inhabitants, according to the last preceding United States census, a board to fix and determine the number and compensation of employes in all county offices, boards, bureaus, departments, and divisions thereof; prescribing the powers and duties of said board, and regulating appeals from the decision thereof'; defining the voting power of members of the salary board."

Senate Bill No. 348, entitled "An act permitting sheriffs in counties of the third class to collect the cost of schedules of distribution on sheriff's sales of real estate."

Senate Bill No. 460, entitled "An act providing for the appointment of township police in townships of the second class; defining their powers and duties; providing for their compensation; requiring the keepers or persons in charge of jails, lockups or station houses to receive persons arrested by such policemen; and prohibiting such policemen from charging or accepting additional compensation."

Senate Bill No. 645, entitled "An act to amend section five of the act, approved the nineteenth day of August, one thousand nine hundred and thirty-two (Pamphlet Laws, ninety-two), entitled 'An act to provide revenue by imposing an emergency sales tax for State purposes upon sales of tangible personal property by vendors, as herein defined; prescribing the method and manner of collecting such tax; and providing penalties,' extending the time for payment of the emergency relief sales tax by extending the time of payment of said tax under certain circumstances."

Senate Bill No. 995, entitled "A supplement to the act, approved the eighth day of May, one thousand nine hundred and nineteen (Pamphlet Laws, one hundred forty-eight), entitled 'An act providing for the joint acquisition and maintenance by the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania and the State of New Jersey of certain toll bridges over the Delaware River,' and its amendments, authorizing the commission created under said act to borrow money from the Reconstruction Finance Corporation for the purpose of constructing toll bridges, to charge tolls thereon, and to repay loans from tolls collected."

House Bill No. 1312, entitled "An act providing for the filling of vacancies in certain county offices in counties of the first class, and fixing the terms of such appointees."

House Bill No. 1441, entitled "An act to amend section one of the act, approved the tenth day of May, one thousand nine hundred and twenty-one (Pamphlet Laws, four hundred thirty-four), entitled 'An act to empower courts of competent jurisdiction to issue writs of execution against property of defendant, and attachment execution or in the nature of attachment execution against trusts, including those commonly known as spendthrift trusts, no matter when such trusts were created, in cases where an order, award, or decree has been made against a husband for the support of his wife or children, or both; making such attachment execution against trusts a continuing lien and levy for fifty per centum of such money or property until the order, judgment, or decree is paid in full with costs; and abolishing the benefit of the exemption law in such cases,' by making such support orders, decrees, and judgments liens against the real property of the husband."

House Bill No. 1563, entitled "An act to amend section one of the act, approved the twenty-second day of June, one thousand nine hundred and thirty-one (Pamphlet Laws, eight hundred eighty-three), entitled 'An act relating to proceedings where goods or chattels have been levied upon or seized by the sheriff, and claimed to belong to others than the defendant in the execution or process, and relieving the sheriff from liability therefor,' by further prescribing procedure upon rules for interpleaders."

House Bill No. 244, entitled "An act to amend section fourteen of the act, approved the second day of May, one thousand nine hundred and twenty-nine (Pamphlet Laws, one thousand two hundred twenty-nine), entitled 'An act to safeguard human health and life by providing for the licensing and regulation of persons and entities dealing in milk for human consumption; conferring powers and imposing duties on the Secretary of Health, and the Advisory Health Board, and otherwise providing for the administration of the act; and imposing penalties,' by giving the courts of the county wherein alleged violation occurs, or the residence or place of business of the complainant, jurisdiction in equity proceedings under the act."

Senate Bill No. 49, entitled "An act to amend sections one hundred and eighty-three and three hundred and sixty-six of the act, approved the fourteenth day of July, one thousand nine hundred and seventeen (Pamphlet Laws, eight hundred forty), entitled 'An act concerning townships; and revising, amending, and consolidating the law relating thereto,' providing for the appointment of the county treasurer as tax collector in certain cases, and for the filling of vacancies where a tax collector fails to give bond."

Senate Bill No. 1338, entitled "An act fixing the fee for the filing of applications for pardon."

Senate Bill No. 385, entitled "An act providing for the fixing of salaries or compensation of all appointed officers, clerks, and other employes paid from the county funds in counties of the sixth, seventh and eighth classes; and creating salary boards in certain counties."

Senate Bill No. 848, entitled "A supplement to the act, approved the eighth day of May, one thousand nine hundred and nineteen (Pamphlet Laws, one hundred forty-eight), entitled 'An act providing for the joint acquisition and maintenance by the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania and the State of New Jersey of certain toll bridges over the Delaware River,' and its amendments, authorizing the commission created under said act to borrow money from the Reconstruction Finance Corporation for the purpose of constructing toll bridges, to charge tolls thereon, and to repay loans from tolls collected."

House Bill No. 188, entitled "An act to amend section one hundred seventy-four of the act, approved the second day of May, one thousand nine hundred and twenty-nine (Pamphlet Laws, one thousand two hundred seventy-eight), entitled 'An act relating to counties of the second, third, fourth, fifth, sixth, seventh and eighth classes; and revising, amending and consolidating the laws relating thereto,' prescribing the oath to be taken by members of the board of viewers."

Senate Bill No. 678, entitled "An act to amend sections four hundred and twenty-two and four hundred and twenty-three of the act, approved the second day of May, one thousand nine hundred and twenty-nine (Pamphlet Laws, one thousand two hundred seventy-eight), entitled 'An Act relating to counties of the second, third, fourth, fifth, sixth, seventh and eighth classes; and revising, amending and consolidating the laws relating thereto,' removing the expenditure limit within which counties may contribute to the cost of the funerals of deceased service persons."

House Bill No. 1511, entitled "An act to amend section four hundred and twenty-six of the act, approved the second day of May, one thousand nine hundred and twenty-nine (Pamphlet Laws, one thousand two hundred seventy-eight), entitled 'An act relating to counties of the second, third, fourth, fifth, sixth, seventh and eighth classes; and revising, amending and consolidating the laws relating thereto,' as amended, by defining the term 'Service man or woman.'"

House Bill No. 1140, entitled "An act to amend paragraph nine of section one of the act, approved the twenty-seventh day of June, one thousand nine hundred and twenty-three (Pamphlet Laws, eight hundred fifty-eight), entitled 'An act establishing a state employes' retirement system, and creating a retirement board for the administration thereof; establishing certain funds from contributions by the Commonwealth and contributing State employes, defining the uses and purposes thereof and the manner of payments therefrom, and providing for the guaranty by the Commonwealth of certain of said funds; imposing powers and duties upon the heads of departments in which State employes serve; excepting annuities, allowances, returns, benefits, and rights from taxation and judicial process; and providing penalties,' as amended, by further extending the time limit for becoming original members of the retirement association."

House Bill No. 1185, entitled "An act creating borough and township poor districts in the county of Wyoming, to be administered by overseers of the poor; and abolishing the county poor district."

Senate Bill No. 702, entitled "An act to repeal the act, approved the twentieth day of April, one thousand nine hundred twenty-seven (Pamphlet Laws, three hundred ten), entitled 'An act regulating the compensation of sheriffs for boarding prisoners confined in the county jail in the counties of the seventh class.'"

House Bill No. 1524, entitled "An act defining the liability on the bond of the treasurer of poor districts in certain cases."

House Bill No. 1701, entitled "An act to amend section two hundred and twenty-two of the act, approved the second day of May, one thousand nine hundred and twenty-nine (Pamphlet Laws, one thousand two hundred seventy-eight), entitled 'An act relating to counties of the second, third, fourth, fifth, sixth, seventh and eighth classes; and revising, amending and consolidating the laws relating thereto,' providing a procedure to provide for the holding of two or more county offices in counties of the sixth class by the same person."

House Bill No. 1371, entitled "An act to further amend sections five and six of the act, approved the tenth day of June, one thousand eight hundred and ninety-three (Pamphlet Laws, four hundred nineteen), entitled 'An act to regulate the nomination and election of public officers; requiring certain expenses incident thereto be paid by the several counties; and punishing certain offenses in regard to such elections,' by increasing the number of signers to nomination papers, changing the time for filing same, and changing the time for filing objections thereto."

Senate Bill No. 266, entitled "An act to provide for the hospitalization of tubercular patients in State-aided hospitals when State owned institutions established for that purpose are unable to provide therefor."

Senate Bill No. 399, entitled "An act authorizing the board of county commissioners of counties of the second class to appropriate monies toward the maintenance of the organized reserve of the Army of the United States, and for assistance of conventions and meetings of associations of officers of the Officers Reserve Corps of the Army of the United States; and validating, ratifying and approving all such appropriations heretofore made."

House Bill No. 1972, entitled "An act to amend section six hundred and three as amended, and section six hundred and twenty-two, of the act, approved the seventeenth day of May, one thousand nine hundred and twenty-one (Pamphlet Laws, seven hundred eighty-nine), entitled as amended 'An act relating to insurance; establishing an insurance department; and amending, revising, and consolidating the law relating to the licensing, qualification, regulation, examination, suspension, and dissolution of insurance companies, Lloyd's Associations, reciprocal and interinsurance exchanges, and certain societies and orders, the examination and regulation of fire insurance rating bureaus, and the licensing and regulation of insurance agents and brokers; the service of legal process upon foreign companies, associations or exchanges; providing penalties; and repealing existing laws,' by defining the right of corporations to be licensed as insurance agents or insurance brokers."

House Bill No. 1031, entitled "An act to amend section fourteen of the act, approved the eighteenth day of July, one thousand nine hundred and seventeen (Pamphlet Laws, one thousand forty-three), entitled 'An act establishing a public school employes' retirement system, and creating a retirement board for the administration thereof; establishing certain funds from contributions by the Commonwealth and contributing employes, defining the use and purposes thereof and the manner of payments therefrom, and providing for the guaranty by the Commonwealth of certain of said funds; imposing powers and duties upon boards having the employment of public school employes; exempting annuities, allowances, returns, benefits, and rights from taxation and judicial process; and providing penalties,' as amended, by fixing a minimum monthly compensation for certain retired teachers."

House Bill No. 960, entitled "An act to amend section one hundred and thirteen of the act, approved the fifteenth day of April, one thousand eight hundred and thirty-four (Pamphlet Laws, five hundred thirty-seven), entitled 'An act relating to counties and townships and county and township officers,' as amended, by requiring a deputy constable in cities of the first and second class to work under or through the constable who appoints him."

House Bill No. 1731, entitled "An act to further amend clause (a) of section four, and clause (a) of section five, of the act, approved the eighteenth day of April, one thousand nine hundred and twenty-nine (Pamphlet Laws, five hundred forty-nine), entitled 'An act to permit the use of voting machines for recording and computing the vote at all elections, including primaries in any county, city, borough or township of the Commonwealth, at the option of the electors thereof; prescribing regulations with reference to the adoption, requirements, examination, purchase, installation, preparation, custody and demonstration of use of voting machines; providing rules and regulations for the conduct of elections held with voting machines; prescribing the qualifications, number and duties of election officers in election districts in which voting machines may be used; placing duties upon county commissioners and the Secretary of the Commonwealth; providing for redivision of wards of cities and boroughs into election districts, and the consolidation of election districts; providing for the payment of expenses incident to the purchase and use of voting machines by the counties in which they are used; and providing penalties for violation of the provisions of this act.' ”

House Bill No. 870, entitled “An act relating to the redemption of real estate purchased by counties at tax sale.”

House Bill No. 1280, entitled “An act exempting persons, associations, copartnerships, and corporations, moving and delivering furniture, goods, and merchandise only in cities of the first class, from the duty to procure certificates of public convenience.”

House Bill No. 1526, entitled “An act to add section fifty-four and one-tenth to the act, approved the second day of May, one thousand nine hundred and twenty-nine (Pamphlet Laws, one thousand two hundred seventy-eight), entitled ‘An act relating to counties of the second, third, fourth, fifth, sixth, seventh and eighth classes; and revising, amending and consolidating the laws relating thereto,’ by defining the liability on the bonds of county officers given to the Commonwealth and to the county in certain cases.”

House Bill No. 1325, entitled “An act providing that the lien of any tax or municipal claim assessed upon or with respect to real property and of any judgment entered therefor, and any execution to enforce such lien or judgment, shall be limited to the property against which said tax has been assessed and shall not impose personal liability upon the owner of such property.”

Senate Bill No. 153, entitled “An act to amend clause (d) of section ten of the act, approved the first day of May, one thousand nine hundred and twenty-nine (Pamphlet Laws, one thousand two hundred sixteen), entitled ‘An act to define real estate brokers and real estate salesmen; and providing for the licensing, regulation, and supervision of resident and nonresident real estate brokers and real estate salesmen and their business,’ as amended, by defining the powers of the courts on appeals from the Department of Public Instruction.”

House Bill No. 1925, entitled “An act authorizing persons employed under any system of State work relief to work out per capita school taxes of himself and members of his family; and providing for the payment of such taxes.”

House Bill No. 647, entitled “An act to amend section three of the act, approved the seventh day of June, one thousand nine hundred and seventeen (Pamphlet Laws, four hundred fifteen), entitled ‘An act relating to the qualification, jurisdiction, powers, and duties of registers of wills, and regulating proceedings before said registers, and the costs thereof, the effects of their acts, and appeals therefrom,’ by requiring registers of wills to notify bodies politic for religious or charitable uses of devises and bequests to them.”

House Bill No. 1277, entitled “An act relating to writs of execution on goods and chattels, and regulating the period within which such property must be sold to preserve the lien of a levy thereon; and providing that sheriffs or coroners may return any such writ if no sale shall be made thereon within said period, unless the sale be stayed by law or an order of court; and relieving them from liability.”

House Bill No. 2061, entitled “An act providing for the transfer of the State Nursery, at Milton, from the Department of Highways to the Department of Forests and Waters.”

House Bill No. 257, entitled “An act to amend sections thirty-seven and thirty-eight of the act, approved the tenth day of July, one thousand nine hundred and nineteen (Pamphlet Laws, eight hundred fifty-seven), entitled 'An act to provide for the personal registration of electors as a condition of their right to vote at elections, and their enrollment as members of political parties as a further condition of their right to vote at primaries, in cities of the first class of this Commonwealth, by removing from office all existing registration commissioners and their appointees in said cities, and authorizing the Governor to appoint registration commissions therein; defining the jurisdiction of said commissions, and the powers and duties of the commissioners constituting same, and of their appointees, including registrars, inspectors of registration, clerks, and counsel; fixing their qualifications, terms of office, and compensation; granting them certain immunity from arrest on registration days; and empowering such inspectors to arrest without warrant certain persons committing certain offenses in violation of this act in their presence, as well as to enter and inspect buildings given as residences of electors to interrogate the inmates thereof, to copy or demand a list of the lodgers therein, and to supervise the conduct of registrars; regulating the registration of electors at polling places by registrars, and at the offices of commissions by commissioners, and the right of parties or bodies of electors to have watchers thereat, and the preparation and use of street lists and other records of those registered; allowing the names of persons not entitled to vote to be struck from the registers in certain cases; permitting all records regarding registration to be inspected and copies by any elector under certain conditions; directing how the registers shall be used at elections and primaries; compelling the attendance of witnesses and payment of witness fees; and providing penalties for refusal to obey subpoenas; directing receivers of taxes to appoint chief clerks of commissions as deputies to collect poll taxes and to give receipts therefor; authorizing such clerks to administer oaths, sign subpoenas and vouchers, and to collect and disburse witness fees; prescribing a method for challenging persons applying for registration, and the procedure for the correction of registers, and for appealing from actions of registrars to said commissions; and allowing for appeals from the decisions of the commissions in certain cases to courts of common pleas; imposing certain duties upon election officers and upon the councils, treasurers, controllers, receivers of taxes, police officers, and other officials of said cities and upon the courts, judges, prothonotaries, sheriffs, commissioners, peace officers, and other officials of the judicial districts and counties in which said cities are situated or with which they are coextensive; legalizing certain acts required hereby if done on any Sunday or legal holiday; requiring said cities to provide for the maintenance of said commissions, and the compensation of their appointees, and the payment of all expenses necessary to carry out the provisions of this act, and to transfer the unexpended balances of all appropriations heretofore made for the personal registration of electors of said cities during the year one thousand nine hundred and nineteen and for the use of the said commissions; punishing and fixing penalties for violations hereof; and repealing all legislation inconsistent herewith,' regulating the correction of registers upon petitions of electors by placing the burden of proof upon the petitioner in proceedings to strike names from the register."

Senate Bill No. 558, entitled "An act to amend section five hundred sixty-three of the act, approved the twenty-first day of May, one thousand nine hundred and twenty-nine (Pamphlet Laws, one thousand two hundred seventy-eight), entitled 'An act relating to counties of the second, third, fourth, fifth, sixth, seventh and eighth classes; and revising, amending and consolidating the laws relating thereto,' providing that in awarding certain contracts for the erection, construction and alteration of public buildings, separate bids shall be received for the structural steel and ornamental iron work."

Senate Bill No. 557, entitled "An act to amend section two thousand five hundred eleven of the act, approved the fourth day of May, one thousand nine hundred and twenty-seven (Pamphlet Laws, five hundred nineteen), entitled 'An act concerning boroughs; and revising, amending and consolidating the law relating to boroughs,' providing that in awarding certain contracts for the erection, construction and alteration of public buildings, separate bids shall be received for the structural steel and ornamental iron work."

Senate Bill No. 561, entitled "An act to amend section one of the act, approved the first day of May, one thousand nine hundred and thirteen (Pamphlet Laws, one hundred fifty-five), entitled 'An act regulating the letting of certain contracts for the erection, construction and alteration of public buildings,' providing that in such cases, separate contracts shall be awarded for the structural steel and ornamental iron work."

Senate Bill No. 560, entitled "An act to amend section one thousand eight hundred and five of the act, approved the twenty-fourth day of June, one thousand nine hundred and thirty-one (Pamphlet Laws, one thousand two hundred six), entitled 'An act concerning townships of the first class; amending, revising, consolidating and changing the law relating thereto,' providing that in awarding certain contracts for the erection, construction and alteration of public buildings, separate bids shall be received for the structural steel and ornamental iron work."

Senate Bill No. 1465, entitled "An act to amend section one of the act, approved the seventeenth day of June, one thousand nine hundred and thirteen (Pamphlet Laws, five hundred seven), entitled 'An act to provide revenue for State and county purposes, and, in cities co-extensive with counties, for city and county purposes; imposing taxes upon certain classes of personal property; providing for the assessment and collection of the same; providing for the duties and compensation of prothonotaries and recorders in connection therewith; and modifying existing legislation which provided for raising revenue for State purposes,' as amended, by exempting interest bearing accounts in any bank or banking institution, savings institution, or trust company from taxation under the provisions of said act."

Senate Bill No. 61, entitled "An act to amend section one of the act, approved the twenty-seventh day of April, one thousand nine hundred and eleven (Pamphlet Laws, one hundred one), entitled 'An act for the assignment of judges to districts other than their own, for the purpose of expediting business, with provision for their compensation,' as amended; allowing certain judges and requiring certain judges who can spare the time from their own courts to send monthly statements to the prothonotary of the Supreme Court of the days when they can sit in other courts; and requiring the prothonotary of the Supreme Court to transmit transcripts of the judicial assignment register to the General Assembly."

Senate Bill No. 690, entitled "An act providing for the assessment of costs for the acquiring and adopting of or connecting with existing sewers of adjacent municipalities by townships or boroughs, and the maintenance thereof; and providing for filing of liens therefor."

Senate Bill No. 559, entitled "An act to amend section one thousand nine hundred and six of the act, approved the twenty-third day of June, one thousand nine hundred and thirty-one (Pamphlet Laws, nine hundred thirty-two), entitled 'An act relating to cities of the third class; and amending, revising and consolidating the law relating thereto,' providing that in awarding certain contracts for the erection, construction and alteration of public buildings, separate bids shall be received for the structural steel and ornamental iron work."

Senate Bill No. 537, entitled "An act to amend section one of the act, approved the twenty-fifth day of June, one thousand eight hundred and ninety-five (Pamphlet Laws, three hundred ten), entitled 'A further supplement to "An act to provide for the incorporation and regulation of certain corporations," approved April twenty-ninth, one thousand eight hundred and seventy-four,' by providing that all corporations organized not for profit shall have authority to issue capital stock to an amount not exceeding five hundred thousand dollars."

House Bill No. 1779, entitled "An act to amend section one of an act, approved the eighth day of June, one thousand nine hundred twenty-three (Pamphlet Laws, six hundred eighty-five), entitled 'An act prescribing the fees for the office of Secretary of the Commonwealth,' by increasing certain fees to be collected by the Secretary of the Commonwealth."

Senate Bill No. 1425, entitled "An act to further amend part of section one of the act, approved the thirteenth day of June, one thousand nine hundred thirty-one (Act number eighteen-A, Appropriation Acts of one thousand nine hundred thirty-one), entitled 'An Act making an appropriation to the Department of Property and Supplies for the acquisition of land and buildings for the Commonwealth, and the erection and construction of new buildings and additions, alterations or improvements to and replacement of new or existing buildings of the Commonwealth, including fixtures and heating or sewerage systems and service lines for the accommodation of buildings,' by extending the scope of the appropriation made to the Department of Property and Supplies for the erection and construction of buildings at the State Industrial Home for Women at Muncy."

House Bill No. 1888, entitled "An act to amend an act, approved the eighteenth day of May, one thousand nine hundred and eleven (Pamphlet Laws, three hundred nine), entitled 'An act to establish a public school system in the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, together with the provisions by which it shall be administered, and prescribing penalties for the violation thereof; providing revenue to establish and maintain the same, and the method of collecting such revenue; and repealing all laws, general, special or local, or any parts thereof, that are or may be inconsistent therewith,' extending the time within which school districts of the second class may levy their taxes; conferring jurisdiction upon certain courts to review the budgets of school districts of second, third and fourth classes, and relating to the effect of the institution of such proceedings upon contracts, agreements, undertakings, and the tax levy made during their pendency.”

House Bill No. 1969, entitled “An act making an appropriation to the Department of Public Instruction for payment to certain school districts of the fourth class of moneys due under the School Code for closed school buildings.”

House Bill No. 1279, entitled “An act to amend article fourteen of the act, approved the eighteenth day of May, one thousand nine hundred and eleven (Pamphlet Laws, three hundred nine), entitled ‘An act to establish a public school system in the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, together with the provisions by which it shall be administered, and prescribing penalties for the violation thereof; providing revenue to establish and maintain the same, and the method of collecting such revenue; and repealing all laws, general, special or local, or any parts thereof, that are or may be inconsistent therewith,’ by adding thereto a new section providing that the Department of Public Instruction shall reimburse school districts for educating children of employes of public institutions.”

Senate Bill No. 18, entitled “An act to amend section five hundred and seventeen of the act, approved the eighteenth day of May, one thousand nine hundred and eleven (Pamphlet Laws, three hundred nine), entitled ‘An act to establish a public school system in the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, together with the provisions by which it shall be administered, and prescribing penalties for the violation thereof; providing revenue to establish and maintain the same, and the method of collecting such revenue; and repealing all laws, general, special or local, or any parts thereof, that are or may be inconsistent therewith,’ as amended, limiting the personal liability of school directors and officers.”

Senate Bill No. 20, entitled “An act to amend section one of the act, approved the thirteenth day of May, one thousand nine hundred and fifteen (Pamphlet Laws, three hundred eleven), entitled ‘An act relating to appeals from the reports of auditors of school districts of the second, third and fourth classes,’ limiting the powers to surcharge officers of school districts.”

House Bill No. 755, entitled “An act authorizing school districts, with the approval of the court of common pleas, to negotiate temporary emergency loans for certain purposes during the year one thousand nine hundred thirty-three, and, under certain circumstances, to refund such loans annually for a certain period.”

House Bill No. 1738, entitled “An act invoking the police power of this Commonwealth, staying proceedings to sell real property on foreclosures of first mortgages for the period of eighteen months in certain cases.”

Senate Bill No. 373, entitled “An act empowering cities, boroughs, incorporated towns and townships to charge and collect annual rentals for the use of sewers, sewage systems and treatment works, including charges for operation, inspection, maintenance, repair, depreciation and the amortization of indebtedness and interest thereon.”

Senate Bill No. 834, entitled “An act empowering cities, boroughs, incorporated towns and townships to charge and collect annual rentals for the use of certain sewers, sewage systems and treatment works, including charges for operation, inspection, maintenance, repair, depreciation and the amortization of indebtedness and interest thereon.”

Senate Bill No. 740, entitled "An act making an appropriation to the Department of Property and Supplies to reimburse any contractor having a contract with the Commonwealth for costs, expenses and losses incurred where work under such contract was not prosecuted on account of the lapsing of part of the appropriation on which the contract was based."

Senate Bill No. 856, entitled "An act authorizing cities of the third class to provide, by ordinance, for the payment for public work or improvements heretofore made for or furnished to the city, and accepted and used by the city, where no legal or valid contract was entered into as required by law."

House Bill No. 1138, entitled "An act making an appropriation for the purchase of a history of the One Hundred and Ninth Field Artillery of the Pennsylvania National Guard, and providing for the distribution thereof."

House Bill No. 1891, entitled "An act making an appropriation to the Department of Property and Supplies to erect steps from the Soldiers and Sailors Memorial Bridge to Baum and Linden Streets."

House Bill No. 1253, entitled "An act to amend article twenty of the act, approved the eighteenth day of May, one thousand nine hundred and eleven (Pamphlet Laws, three hundred nine), entitled 'An act to establish a public school system in the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, together with the provisions by which it shall be administered, and prescribing penalties for the violation thereof; providing revenue to establish and maintain the same, and method of collecting such revenue; and repealing all laws, general, special or local, or any parts thereof, that are or may be inconsistent therewith,' as amended; by prescribing the powers and duties of the boards of trustees of State Teachers colleges and the Cheyney Training School for Teachers; repealing inconsistent legislation."

Senate Bill No. 104, entitled "An act requiring the Department of Revenue to prepare and distribute lists of certain stocks and securities which in its opinion are exempt from the city and county tax on intangible personal property."

Senate Bill No. 151, entitled "An act to enlarge the jurisdiction of justices of the peace and aldermen."

Senate Bill No. 994, entitled "An act to prevent fraud and deception in the sale and offering for sale of rebuilt storage batteries; and prescribing penalties for violation thereof."

Senate Bill No. 1464, entitled "An act to amend the act, approved the twenty-ninth day of March, one thousand eight hundred and ninety-nine (Pamphlet Laws, twenty-one), entitled 'An act to establish a board for the examination of accountants, to provide for the granting of certificates to accountants, and to provide a punishment for the violation of this act,' by adding thereto a section providing penalties for issuing, or permitting to be issued, a false financial statement."

Senate Bill No. 5, entitled "An act making an appropriation for the preparation of the Eighteenth Division History; and creating a commission for such purpose."

Senate Bill No. 297, entitled "An act to provide for the permanent personal registration of electors in cities of the second class and second class A as a condition of their right to vote at elections and primaries, and their enrollment as members of political parties as a further condition of their right to vote at primaries; and prescribing the powers and duties of citizens, parties, bodies of electors, registration commissions, commissioners, registrars, inspectors of registration and other appointees of registration commissions, election officers, municipal officers, departments and bureaus, police officers, courts, judges, prothonotaries, sheriffs, county commissioners, peace officer, county treasurers, county controllers, registrars of vital statistics, and boards of school directors; and imposing penalties."

House Bill No. 500, entitled "An act to amend the act, approved the twenty-fifth day of February, one thousand eight hundred and seventy-five (Pamphlet Laws, four), entitled 'A supplement to the act, approved March thirty-first, one thousand eight hundred and sixty, entitled "An act to consolidate, revise and amend the penal laws of this Commonwealth," further defining the offence of kidnapping, and affixing additional penalties thereto,' by increasing the penalty for kidnapping of children under the age of sixteen years with intent to extort money for restoration."

House Bill No. 1282, entitled "An act authorizing cities of the first class to issue scrip to be used in the payment of employes thereof; providing that such scrip shall be negotiable, shall be received by such city in payment of taxes due, and shall bear interest; providing for the redemption of such scrip; limiting the issuance thereof, and the liability of the city therefor; and providing penalties."

House Bill No. 864, entitled "An act to repeal article twenty-one of the act, approved the eighteenth day of May, one thousand nine hundred and eleven (Pamphlet Laws, three hundred nine), entitled 'An act to establish a public school system in the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, together with the provisions by which it shall be administered, and prescribing penalties for the violation thereof; providing revenue to establish and maintain the same, and the method of collecting such revenue; and repealing all laws, general, special or local, or any parts thereof, that are or may be inconsistent therewith."

Senate Bill No. 700, entitled "An act to amend section three hundred and twenty-five of the act, approved the eighteenth day of May, one thousand nine hundred and eleven (Pamphlet Laws, three hundred nine), entitled 'An act to establish a public school system in the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, together with the provisions by which it shall be administered, and prescribing penalties for the violation thereof; providing revenue to establish and maintain the same, and the method of collecting such revenue; and repealing all laws, general, special or local, or any parts thereof, that are or may be inconsistent therewith,' by providing for the security to be given by depositories of school funds."

Senate Bill No. 391, entitled "An act to amend sections six hundred and fifteen, six hundred and sixteen, and six hundred and twenty of the act, approved the first day of May, one thousand nine hundred and twenty-nine (Pamphlet Laws, nine hundred five), entitled 'An act for the protection of the public safety; regulating the use of highways, and the operation of vehicles, tractors, street cars, trackless trolley omnibuses, bicycles, pedestrians, and the riding of animals upon the highways of this Commonwealth; providing for the titling, including liens, encumbrances, and legal claims; registration of certain vehicles and licensing the operators thereof, upon payment of prescribed fees; prescribing and limiting the powers of local authorities to deal with the subject matter of this act; conferring powers and imposing duties upon the Department of Revenue, the Department of Highways, peace officers, mayors, burgesses, magistrates, aldermen, justices of the peace, the courts and the clerks thereof, owners of vehicles, and garage keepers; providing that records are admissible as evidence; imposing upon owners, counties, cities, boroughs, incorporated towns, townships, within the Commonwealth, liability for damages caused by the negligent operation of their motor vehicles; imposing penalties; imposing certain costs upon counties; providing for the disposition of fines, forfeitures, fees, and miscellaneous receipts; making an appropriation and providing for refunds, as amended, limiting the circumstances under which an operator's license or learner's permit may be suspended, providing that an appeal from such action by the secretary shall act as a supersedeas, and modifying the penalties for violation of license provisions."

Senate Bill No. 105, entitled "An act to amend section ten as amended of an act, approved the thirty-first day of May, one thousand nine hundred and eleven (Pamphlet Laws, four hundred sixty-eight), entitled 'An act providing for the establishment of a State Highway Department, by the appointment of a State Highway Commissioner, two Deputy State Highway Commissioners, chief engineer, chief draughtsman, superintendents of highways, and a staff of assistants and employes; defining their duties and the jurisdiction of the State Highway Department, and fixing salaries of commissioner and deputies and other appointees; providing for taking over from the counties or townships of the Commonwealth certain existing public roads connecting county-seats, principal cities, and towns and extending to the State line; describing and defining same by route numbers as the State highways of the Commonwealth; providing for the improvement, maintenance and repair of said State highways solely at the expense of the Commonwealth, and relieving the several townships or counties from any further obligation and expense to improve or maintain the same, and relieving said townships or counties of authority over same; requiring boroughs and incorporated towns to maintain certain State highways wholly and in part; requiring the State Highway Commissioner to make maps to be complete records thereof; conferring authority on the State Highway Commissioner; providing for the payment of damages in taking of property, or otherwise, in the improvement thereof; providing for purchase or acquiring of turnpikes or toll-roads forming all or part of any State highway, and procedure therein; providing for work of improvement of State highways to be done by contract, except where the State Highway Commissioner decides the work to be done by the State; providing aid by the State to counties and townships desiring the same in the improvement of township or county roads; defining highways and State-aid highways; providing method of application for State aid in the improvement, maintenance and repair of township or county roads and prescribing the contents of township, county, borough, or incorporated town petitions; providing for percentage of cost of improvement or repairs to be paid by State, county, township, borough, or incorporated town, and requiring contracts by counties, townships, boroughs, and incorporated towns with Commonwealth governing same; providing for the minimum width of State highways and State-aid highways, and kind of materials to be used in the improvement; providing for payment of cost of improvement and repairs; providing penalty for injuring or destroying State highways; making appropriations to carry out the provisions of the act; and providing for the repeal of certain acts relating to Highway Department and improvement of roads, and of all acts or parts of acts inconsistent herewith; and providing that existing contracts are not affected by provisions of this act,' by providing for the construction, reconstruction and maintenance of certain bridges forming parts of State highways in boroughs and incorporated towns by the Department of Highways."

Senate Bill No. 969, entitled "An act providing for the payment of damages caused by the change of grade where the property was improved on the natural surface of the ground without conforming to the established grade regulation, where said regulation had been established for more than three years prior to the improvement."

Senate Bill No. 237, entitled "An act to amend the act, approved the second day of May, one thousand nine hundred and twenty-nine (Pamphlet Laws, one thousand two hundred seventy-eight), entitled 'An act relating to counties of the second, third, fourth, fifth, sixth, seventh and eighth classes; and revising, amending and consolidating the laws relating thereto,' by adding a new subdivision, providing for the appointment of a fire marshal in counties of the second class."

House Bill No. 1808, entitled "An act to amend section one thousand eight hundred and six of the act, approved the ninth day of April, one thousand nine hundred and twenty-nine (Pamphlet Laws, one hundred seventy-seven), entitled 'An act providing for and reorganizing the conduct of the executive and administrative work of the Commonwealth by the Executive Department thereof and the administrative departments, boards, commissions, and officers thereof, including the boards of trustees of State Normal Schools, or Teachers Colleges; abolishing, creating, reorganizing or authorizing the reorganization of certain administrative departments, boards, and commissions; defining the powers and duties of the Governor and other executive and administrative officers, and of the several administrative departments, boards, commissions, and officers; fixing the salaries of the Governor, Lieutenant Governor, and certain other executive and administrative officers; providing for the appointment of certain administrative officers, and of all deputies and other assistants and employes in certain departments, boards, and commissions; and prescribing the manner in which the number and compensation of the deputies and all other assistants and employes of certain departments, boards, and commissions shall be determined,' defining the powers of persons appointed to police State parks."

House Bill No. 1248, entitled "An act authorizing the publication of legal and official advertising and notices in Sunday newspapers of general circulation."

Senate Bill No. 67, entitled "An act increasing the discretionary powers of the county commissioners in counties of the third class with reference to the assessment, levy and collection of taxes."

Senate Bill No. 68, entitled "An act increasing the discretionary powers of boards of school directors in school districts of the second class with reference to the assessment, levy and collection of taxes."

Senate Bill No. 72, entitled "An act prescribing penalties to be imposed upon conviction of stealing poultry."

House Bill No. 933, entitled "An act reducing the salaries and compensation of certain county, city, borough, town, township, and poor district officers and employes; and requesting and urging public officers of counties, cities, boroughs, towns, townships, and poor districts now in office to agree to voluntary reductions of salaries."

Senate Bill No. 767, entitled "An act to add section seven hundred thirty-seven to the act, approved the second day of May, one thousand nine hundred and twenty-nine (Pamphlet Laws, one thousand two hundred seventy-eight), entitled 'An act relating to counties of the second, third, fourth, fifth, sixth, seventh and eighth classes; and revising, amending and consolidating the laws relating thereto,' by authorizing two or more counties jointly, with the consent of the Department of Highways, to levy and collect tolls on certain toll bridges acquired and rebuilt by such counties for the purpose of paying off the indebtedness incurred, or reimbursing such counties for moneys expended in the acquisition, rebuilding and maintenance of such toll bridges."

House Bill No. 1726, entitled "An act creating a commission to study the laws relating to poor districts, and to draft such new laws as may be necessary to revise and codify such laws and establish State supervision over poor boards."

Senate Bill No. 187, entitled "A joint resolution continuing the senate committee constituted to investigate charges against members of the Public Service Commission and related matters; defining the powers and duties of said committee; ratifying and confirming the filling of vacancies in the membership thereof; and making an appropriation for the payment of its past and future expenses."

House Bill No. 10, entitled "An act to repeal the act, approved the twenty-ninth day of May, one thousand nine hundred and thirty-one (Pamphlet Laws, two hundred seventy-eight), entitled 'An act creating a "Greater Pennsylvania Council" for the promotion of the economic, social, industrial, agricultural, educational, civic and recreational welfare of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania and its citizens; prescribing the organization, powers and duties of said council; and making an appropriation.'"

House Bill No. 446, entitled "An act making an appropriation to the Department of Property and Supplies to be expended by it in the payment to the Harrisburg Railways Company, of the city of Harrisburg, of the unpaid balance of the damages occasioned by the erection by the Commonwealth of the Soldiers and Sailors Memorial Bridge."

Senate Bill No. 58, entitled "An act to amend section one of the act, approved the twenty-fourth day of June, one thousand nine hundred and nineteen (Pamphlet Laws, five hundred seventy-nine), entitled 'An act to fix the salary and mileage of the members of the General Assembly, and to provide for the furnishing of such postage, stationery and supplies as may be necessary for the conduct of their offices; and repealing all acts or parts of acts inconsistent therewith,' as amended, by changing the compensation of members of the General Assembly."

House Bill No. 1789, entitled "An act to further amend paragraph (a) of section nine of the act, approved the fifteenth day of June, one thousand nine hundred and twenty-three (Pamphlet Laws, eight hundred nine), entitled 'An act relating to the organization, maintenance, and operation of the Department of Banking, and the scope of its supervision and control over corporations, partnerships, unincorporated associations and individuals, and the assets and liabilities thereof; providing penalties for the enforcement of its provisions; and repealing the Banking Department Act of nineteen hundred and nineteen, with table of contents,' by making the moneys in the Banking Department Fund available for the reimbursement of the General Fund for certain services rendered or supplies by certain departments."

House Bill No. 92, entitled "An act permitting fishing on Sunday, with one rod and two hooks, in boundary streams and waters flowing thereinto; and fixing penalties."

House Bill No. 196, entitled "An act to amend section seven hundred and one, and sections seven hundred and four and seven hundred and twenty-five as amended, of the act, approved the twenty-fourth day of May, one thousand nine hundred and twenty-three (Pamphlet Laws, three hundred fifty-nine), entitled 'An act concerning game and other wild birds and wild animals; and amending, revising, consolidating, and changing the law relating thereto,' further regulating lawful possession of game."

House Bill No. 1412, entitled "An act making an appropriation to the committee created to investigate the affairs of the special poor districts of Philadelphia and to make report thereon."

House Bill No. 2042, entitled "An act making an appropriation to the Milton Wright Memorial Home of Franklin County, Pennsylvania."

House Bill No. 1733, entitled "An act making an appropriation to Willow Crest for Convalescents, Philadelphia, Pennsylvania."

House Bill No. 322, entitled "An act making an appropriation to the Baby Welfare Association of Philadelphia."

House Bill No. 1063, entitled "An act making an appropriation to the Friendship Home nineteen hundred thirty-nine North Twenty-second Street, Philadelphia."

Senate Bill No. 382, entitled "An act making an appropriation to the Robert Wood's Industrial Home and Day Nursery for Colored Boys and Girls of Philadelphia, Pennsylvania."

Senate Bill No. 493, entitled "An act making an appropriation to the Woods Run Settlement House of Allegheny County."

Senate Bill No. 786, entitled "An act making an appropriation to the Southern Dispensary, three hundred and eighteen Bainbridge Street, Philadelphia, Pennsylvania."

House Bill No. 126, entitled "An act to amend section one thousand four hundred one of the act, approved the ninth day of April, one thousand nine hundred and twenty-nine (Pamphlet Laws, three hundred forty-three), entitled 'An act relating to the finances of the State government; providing for the settlement, assessment, collection, and lien of taxes, bonus, and all other accounts due the Commonwealth, the collection and recovery of fees and other money or property due or belonging to the Commonwealth, or any agency thereof, including escheated property and the proceeds of its sale, the custody and disbursement or other disposition of funds and securities belonging to or in the possession of the Commonwealth, and the settlement of claims against the Commonwealth, the resettlement of accounts and appeals to the courts, refunds of moneys erroneously paid to the Commonwealth, auditing the accounts of the Commonwealth and all agencies thereof, of all public officers collecting moneys payable to the Commonwealth, or any agency thereof, and all receipts of appropriations from the Commonwealth and imposing penalties; affecting every department, board, commission, and officer of the State government, every political subdivision of the State, and certain officers of such subdivisions, every person, association, and corporation required to pay, assess, or collect taxes, or to make returns or reports under the laws imposing taxes for State purposes, or to pay license fees or other moneys to the Commonwealth, or any agency thereof, every State depository and every debtor or creditor of the Commonwealth,' limiting the lien and procedure for collection of taxes, bonus and other moneys due the Commonwealth in certain cases."

House Bill No. 127, entitled "An act to amend section one thousand two hundred seven of the act, approved the ninth day of April, one thousand nine hundred and twenty-nine (Pamphlet Laws, three hundred forty-three), entitled 'An act relating to the finances of the State Government; providing for the settlement, assessment, collection, and lien of taxes, bonus, and all other accounts due the Commonwealth, the collection and recovery of fees and other money or property due or belonging to the Commonwealth, or any agency thereof, including escheated property and the proceeds of its sale, the custody and disbursement or other disposition of funds and securities belonging to or in the possession of the Commonwealth, and the settlement of claims against the Commonwealth, the resettlement of accounts and appeals to the courts, refunds of moneys erroneously paid to the Commonwealth, auditing the accounts of the Commonwealth and all agencies thereof, of all public officers collecting moneys payable to the Commonwealth, or any agency thereof, and all receipts of appropriations from the Commonwealth and imposing penalties; affecting every department, board, commission, and officer of the State government, every political subdivision of the State, and certain officers of such subdivisions, every person, association, and corporation required to pay, assess, or collect taxes, or to make returns or reports under the laws imposing for State purposes, or to pay license fees or other moneys to the Commonwealth, or any agency thereof, every State depository and every debtor or creditor of the Commonwealth,' taking out of operation of the Fiscal Code questions relating to the lien and payment of liquid fuel taxes, and referring such questions to the provisions of the liquid fuel tax acts."

Senate Bill No. 158, entitled "An act to amend section six as amended, and section eight, of an act, approved the twelfth day of July, one thousand nine hundred and thirteen (Pamphlet Laws, seven hundred nineteen), entitled 'An act regulating certain political parties; providing for and regulating the nomination of candidates of such political parties for certain public offices, the election of delegates and alternate delegates to National party conventions, and of certain party officers, including State committeemen; a method whereby electors of such political parties may express their choice of candidates for the office of President of the United States; and the payment by the several counties, and their reimbursement by the State, of the expenses of the same; authorizing the State committee of a political party to make, and to alter, amend, and revoke, rules; and providing penalties for the violation of the provisions of this act, and for the punishment of certain offenses provided for herein; and repealing inconsistent legislation,' prohibiting candidates for certain offices from being candidates for more than one party nomination, and requiring candidates' affidavits from candidates for additional offices."

Senate Bill No. 100, entitled "An act relating to the relief of the burden of local taxation; making an appropriation out of the Motor License Fund; providing for the allocation thereof to cities, towns, boroughs and townships; prescribing the time, manner, basis and purposes for and upon which such said money shall be allocated and paid; specifying the uses for which said moneys may be expended; and imposing powers and duties upon the Department of Highways, the Auditor General, State Treasurer, and on cities, boroughs, towns and townships, and officers thereof; and providing penalties."

Senate Bill No. 271, entitled "An act making an appropriation to the Lee Homeopathic Hospital, Johnstown, Pennsylvania."

House Bill No. 1220, entitled "An act to amend section ten of an act, approved the thirty-first day of May, one thousand nine hundred and eleven (Pamphlet Laws, four hundred sixty-eight), entitled 'An act providing for the establishment of a State Highway Department, by the appointment of a State Highway Commissioner, two Deputy State Highway Commissioners, chief engineer, chief draughtsman, superintendents of highways, and a staff of assistants and employes; defining their duties and the jurisdiction of the State Highway Department, and fixing salaries of commissioner and deputies and other appointees; providing for taking over from the counties or townships of the Commonwealth certain existing public roads connecting county-seats, principal cities, and towns and extending to the State line; describing and defining same by route numbers as the State highways of the Commonwealth; providing for the improvement, maintenance and repair of said State highways solely at the expense of the Commonwealth, and relieving the several townships or counties from any further obligation and expense to improve or maintain the same, and relieving said townships or counties of authority over same; requiring boroughs and incorporated towns to maintain certain State highways wholly and in part; requiring the State Highway Commissioner to make maps to be complete records thereof; conferring authority on the State Highway Commissioner; providing for the payment of damages in taking of property, or otherwise, in the improvement thereof; providing for purchase or acquiring of turnpikes or toll-roads forming all or part of any State highway, and procedure therein; providing for work of improvement of State highways to be done by contract, except where the State Highway Commissioner decides the work be done by the State; providing aid by the State to counties and townships desiring the same in the improvement of township or county roads; defining highways and State-aid highways; providing method of application for State aid in the improvement, maintenance and repair of township or county roads and prescribing the contents of township, county, borough, or incorporated town petitions; providing for percentage of cost of improvement or repairs to be paid by State, county, township, borough, or incorporated town, and requiring contracts by counties, townships, boroughs, and incorporated towns with Commonwealth governing same; providing for the minimum width of State highways and State-aid highways, and kind of materials to be used in the improvement; providing for payment of cost of improvement and repairs; providing penalty for injuring or destroying State highways; making appropriations to carry out the provisions of the act; and providing for the repeal of certain acts relating to Highway Department and improvement of roads, and of all acts or parts of acts inconsistent herewith; and providing that existing contracts are not affected by provisions of this act,' as amended, relieving boroughs and incorporated towns from the responsibility for maintenance of highways and bridges under the control of the Department of Highways of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania."

House Bill No. 1519, entitled "An act to regulate insurance companies chartered under general or special laws of this Commonwealth by providing that no director need be a resident of any particular city or county, that the directors shall elect the president or appoint the secretaries, that the residence of the president and secretaries need not be in the county wherein the principal office of the company is located, and that the annual meeting shall be held and reports shall be published as provided in the by-laws."

Senate Bill No. 345, entitled "An act prohibiting contractors, sub-contractors, and builders, and their agents, from paying out, using or appropriating moneys and funds received for the erection, construction, alteration, completion and repair of buildings, and for additions thereto, before first paying in full or prorata all claims due to architects, surveyors, engineers, and persons furnishing labor and material; imposing certain duties upon owners of buildings for the protection of the claims of such architects, surveyors, engineers, and persons; and providing that the contractor in receiving payments on the contract shall be the agent of such claimants."

Senate Bill No. 434, entitled "An act making an appropriation to the trustees of the Pennsylvania Military College, Chester, Pennsylvania, for the training and education of students."

House Bill No. 74, entitled "An act to amend section one thousand two hundred and seven of the act, approved the first day of May, one thousand nine hundred and twenty-nine (Pamphlet Laws, nine hundred five), entitled 'An act for the protection of the public safety; regulating the use of highways, and the operation of vehicles, tractors, street cars, trackless trolley omnibuses, bicycles, pedestrians, and the riding of animals upon the highways of this Commonwealth; providing for the titling, including liens, encumbrances, and legal claims; registration of certain vehicles and licensing the operators thereof, upon payment of prescribed fees; prescribing and limiting the powers of local authorities to deal with the subject matter of this act; conferring powers and imposing duties upon the Department of Revenue, the Department of Highways, peace officers, mayors, burgesses, magistrates, aldermen, justices of the peace, the courts and clerks thereof, owners of vehicles, and garage keepers; providing that records are admissible as evidence; imposing upon owners, counties, cities, boroughs, incorporated towns, townships, within the Commonwealth, liability for damages caused by the negligent operation of their motor vehicles; imposing penalties; imposing certain costs upon counties; providing for the disposition of fines, forfeitures, fees, and miscellaneous receipts; making an appropriation and providing for refunds,' as amended providing for the reimbursement from fines, penalties, and forfeited bail collected of counties for costs imposed on them as the result of prosecutions under this act, and for the adjustment of the accounts of counties by the Auditor General."

House Bill No. 1076, entitled "An act requiring the Secretary of the Commonwealth to inquire into the purposes of the incorporators of labor groups, and to approve or disapprove their incorporation or right to do business within the Commonwealth."

Senate Bill No. 897, entitled "An act authorizing the issuance of scrip for relief purposes by political subdivisions of this Commonwealth; providing for the printing and issuance of scrip and stamps by the Commonwealth, for the creation of a scrip redemption fund in the State Treasury, and for the redemption of scrip therefrom; imposing duties on the State Emergency Relief Board and the State Treasurer; appropriating the moneys in the scrip redemption fund; imposing penalties for counterfeiting and otherwise tampering with scrip certificates or stamps; and making an appropriation."

Senate Bill No. 1477, entitled "An act to amend section four hundred forty-three of the act, approved the ninth day of April, one thousand nine hundred and twenty-nine (Pamphlet Laws, one hundred seventy-seven), entitled 'An act providing for and reorganizing the conduct of the executive and administrative work of the Commonwealth by the Executive Department thereof and the administrative departments, boards, commissions, and officers thereof, including the boards of trustees of State Normal Schools, or Teachers Colleges; abolishing, creating, reorganizing or authorizing the reorganization of certain administrative departments, boards, and commissions; defining the powers and duties of the Governor and other executive and administrative officers, and of the several administrative departments, boards, commissions, and officers; fixing the salaries of the Governor, Lieutenant Governor, and certain other executive and administrative officers; providing for the appointment of certain administrative officers, and of all deputies and other assistants and employes in certain departments, boards, and commissions; and prescribing the manner in which the number and compensation of the deputies and all other assistants and employes of certain departments, boards, and commissions shall be determined,' changing the personnel of the State Workmen's Insurance Board, prescribing their length of term, the method of filling a vacancy on the board, the election by the board of a manager, and prescribing certain of his powers and duties.

House Bill No. 70, entitled "An act to amend sections sixty-nine and seventy-one of the act, approved the twenty-second day of June, one thousand nine hundred and thirty-one (Pamphlet Laws, five hundred ninety-four), entitled 'An act establishing certain township roads as State highways; authorizing their construction, maintenance, and improvement under certain conditions and restrictions; limiting the obligation of the Commonwealth in the construction of certain structures located on such highways; conferring certain powers upon the Department of Highways and local authorities, persons, associations and corporations for sharing the cost of the maintenance and construction of such highways; and making an appropriation to carry out the provisions of said act,' by increasing the obligation of the Commonwealth in the construction of certain structures located on such highways."

Senate Bill No. 42, entitled "An act to amend sections two hundred and twelve, two hundred and fourteen, seven hundred and one, and seven hundred and nine of the act, approved the ninth day of April, one thousand nine hundred and twenty-nine (Pamphlet Laws, one hundred seventy-seven), entitled 'An act providing for and reorganizing the conduct of the executive and administrative work of the Commonwealth by the Executive Department thereof and the administrative departments, boards, commissions, and officers thereof, including the boards of trustees of State Normal Schools, or Teachers Colleges; abolishing, creating, reorganizing or authorizing the reorganization of certain administrative departments, boards, and commissions; defining the powers and duties of the Governor and other executive and administrative officers, and of the several administrative departments, boards, commissions, and officers; fixing the salaries of the Governor, Lieutenant Governor, and certain other executive and administrative officers; providing for the appointment of certain administrative officers, and of all deputies and other assistants and employes in certain departments, boards, and commissions; and prescribing the manner in which the number and compensation of the deputies and all other assistants and employes of certain departments, boards, and commissions shall be determined,' by exempting the Department of Internal Affairs from the provisions of said sections."

House Bill No. 1299, entitled "An act to supplement the act, approved the twenty-sixth day of June, one thousand nine hundred and thirty-one (Pamphlet Laws, one thousand three hundred seventy-nine), entitled 'An act creating in counties of the third class a board for the assessment and revision of taxes; providing for the appointment of the members of such board by the county commissioners; providing for their salaries, payable by the county; abolishing existing boards; defining the powers and duties of such board; regulating the assessment of persons, property, and occupations for county, borough, town, township, school, and poor purposes; authorizing the appointment of subordinate assessors, a solicitor, engineers, and clerks; providing for their compensation, payable by such counties; abolishing the office of ward, borough, and township assessors, so far as the making of assessments and valuations for taxation is concerned; and providing for the acceptance of this act by cities,' by validating assessments made otherwise than as provided therein, and authorizing county commissioners to pay for services of assessors making such assessments."

House Bill No. 1566, entitled "An act establishing a State Public Works Planning Board; prescribing and defining its powers and duties; granting authority to counties of the first, second and third classes and cities to create local public works planning boards, and defining their powers and duties; defining the relationship of the State board to such local boards and to such classes of counties and such cities where no such approved local boards exist on and after January first, one thousand nine hundred and thirty-six; and making an appropriation."

House Bill No. 1746, entitled "An act establishing a State Emergency Public Works Commission; prescribing and defining its powers and duties, including the power to prepare an emergency program of construction projects for the immediate creation of employment, with the assistance of the various State agencies having charge of the construction of public works and the various duly constituted official planning agencies or citizen-constituted planning bodies which have developed general plan studies, to devise and recommend for adoption by local and State governments draft of legislation establishing properly staffed and empowered official planning bodies, to study and recommend, in general terms, such types of legislation as will encourage or effect such needed reforms of financial and taxing procedure as are particularly related to the execution of public works, and which will also result in the establishment of long-term programs of public works construction and expenditure; providing for the terms, salaries, and compensation of the members of the State board, its officers and employes."

House Bill No. 1791, entitled "An act making an appropriation of moneys in the Motor License Fund to the Department of Public Instruction, and providing for the repayment of such moneys from the General Fund."

House Bill No. 2366, entitled "An act making an appropriation out of the Motor License Fund for highway purposes in counties of the first class."

House Bill No. 9, entitled "An act to amend and further amend the act, approved the ninth day of April, one thousand nine hundred and twenty-nine (Pamphlet Laws, three hundred forty-three), entitled 'An act relating to the finances of the State government; providing for the settlement, assessment, collection, and lien of taxes, bonus, and all other accounts due the Commonwealth, the collection and recovery of fees and other money or property due or belonging to the Commonwealth, or any agency thereof, including escheated property and the proceeds of its sale, the custody and disbursement or other disposition of funds and securities belonging to or in the possession of the Commonwealth, and the settlement of claims against the Commonwealth, the resettlement of accounts and appeals to the courts, refunds of moneys erroneously paid to the Commonwealth, auditing the accounts of the Commonwealth and all agencies thereof, of all public officers collecting moneys payable to the Commonwealth, or any agency thereof, and all receipts of appropriations from the Commonwealth and imposing penalties; affecting every department, board, commission, and officer of the State government, every political subdivision of the State, and certain officers of such subdivisions, every person, association, and corporation required to pay, assess, or collect taxes, or to make returns or reports under the laws imposing taxes for State purposes, or to pay license fees or other moneys to the Commonwealth, or any agency thereof, every State depository and every debtor or creditor of the Commonwealth,' making further provision for the settlement, assessment, collection, lien, and procedure for collection of taxes and other moneys due the Commonwealth."

House Bill No. 2103, entitled "An act providing for the reimbursement by the State of counties for costs and the maintenance of prisoners imposed as the result of prosecutions under laws providing that fines and penalties imposed under such laws, or forfeited bail recovered as the result of such prosecutions, shall be payable into the State Treasury or any fund thereof; providing for the audit of the accounts of counties by the Auditor General, and for the collection of amounts due from counties, and for appeals by counties to the Board of Finance and Revenue; and imposing powers and duties on the Auditor General and the Department of Revenue, and certain duties upon counties; repealing inconsistent acts; and making an appropriation."

House Bill No. 22, entitled "An act providing for and reorganizing the conduct of the executive and administrative work of the Commonwealth by the Executive Department thereof and the administrative departments, boards, commissions, and officers thereof, including the boards of trustees of State Normal Schools, or Teachers Colleges; abolishing, creating, reorganizing or authorizing the reorganization of certain administrative departments, boards, and commissions; defining the powers and duties of the Governor and other executive and administrative officers, and of the several administrative departments, boards, commissions, and officers; fixing the salaries of the Governor, Lieutenant Governor, and certain other executive and administrative officers, deputies, and employes; providing for the appointment of certain administrative officers, and of all deputies and other assistants and employes in certain departments, boards, and commissions; and prescribing the manner in which the number and compensation of the assistants and employes of certain departments, boards, and commissions shall be determined.”

[GREAT SEAL]

Given under my hand and the Great Seal of the State, at the City of Harrisburg, this third day of June, in the year of our Lord one thousand nine hundred and thirty-three, and of the Commonwealth the one hundred and fifty-seventh.

GIFFORD PINCHOT

By the Governor:

RICHARD J. BEAMISH,
Secretary of the Commonwealth.

