AN ACT

To amend section one of the act, approved the twenty-sixth day of August, one thousand nine hundred and thirty-two (Pamphlet Laws, one hundred one), entitled "An act authorizing collectors of delinquent taxes, except in cities of the first class, to accept payments of delinquent taxes or water-rents or rates in installments," extending the provisions thereof to county taxes, other than county taxes in counties of the second class, and clarifying the term "delinquent tax collector."

Taxation.

Section 1, act of August 26, 1932 (P. L. 101), amended.

Section 1. Be it enacted, &c., That section one of the act, approved the twenty-sixth day of August, one thousand nine hundred and thirty-two (Pamphlet Laws, one hundred one), entitled "An act authorizing collectors of delinquent taxes, except in cities of the first class, to accept payments of delinquent taxes or water-rents or rates in installments," is hereby amended to read as follows:

Delinquent taxes and water-rents.

Collectors authorized to accept installment payments.

Section 1. Be it enacted, &c., That the collector of taxes, collector of delinquent taxes, constable, or delinquent tax collector, or other official authorized to collect delinquent taxes under the provisions of existing general or special legislation, during the period in which he is authorized to collect the delinquent taxes of any county, except a county of the second class, city, except a city of the first class, and of any borough, incorporated district, township, poor district or school district, shall have the power, at the request of any taxpayer, to accept payment in installments of delinquent taxes or water-rents or rates, both before and after the filing of liens therefor, but he shall not be obliged to accept any installment of less than ten per centum (10%) of the face amount of the tax, water-rent or rate when it became
