hundred and six (Pamphlet Laws, seventy-eight), entitled "An act to regulate nomination and election expenses, and to require accounts of nomination and election expenses to be filed, and providing penalties for the violation of this act," which was amended by the act approved the eighteenth day of April, one thousand nine hundred and nineteen (Pamphlet Laws, sixty-eight), is hereby further amended to read as follows:

Section 5. Every candidate for nomination at any primary election, caucus, or convention, whether nominated thereat or not, and every treasurer of a political committee concerned therein, or person acting as such treasurer, shall, within fifteen days after the same was held, if the amount received or expended shall exceed the sum of fifty dollars, and every candidate for election, and every treasurer of a political committee, or person acting as such treasurer, shall, within thirty days after every election at which such candidate was voted for or with which such political committee was concerned, if the amount received or expended shall exceed the sum of fifty dollars, file, with the officers hereinafter specified, a full, true and detailed account, subscribed, and sworn or affirmed to, by him before an officer authorized to administer oaths, setting forth each and every sum of money contributed, received, or disbursed by him for election expenses, the date of each contribution, receipt, and disbursement, the name of the person from whom received or to whom paid, and the object or purpose for which the same was disbursed. Such account shall also set forth the unpaid debts and obligations of any such candidate or committee for election expenses, with the nature and amount of each and to whom owing. In the case of candidates for election, or treasurers of political committees, or persons acting as such treasurers, concerned in an election, who have previously filed accounts as candidates for nomination or as treasurers of political committees concerned in a nomination, the accounts shall only include contributions, receipts, and disbursements subsequent to the date of such prior accounts. If the aggregate receipts or disbursements of a candidate or political committee in connection with any nomination or election shall not exceed fifty dollars, the treasurer of the committee or candidate shall, within thirty days after the election, certify that fact under oath to the officer with whom the statement is filed as hereinafter provided: Provided, however, That if a candidate or political committee does not receive any contributions or make any disbursements, the candidates or the treasurer of the political committee shall not be required to file any account or to make any affidavit.
