

No. 46

AN ACT

To amend section three of the act, approved the fourteenth day of June, one thousand nine hundred and twenty-three (Pamphlet Laws, eight hundred one), entitled "An act authorizing the State Highway Department, the Public Service Commission, counties, cities, boroughs, and townships to purchase, or condemn by the right of eminent domain, free and unobstructed view over and across lands at certain highway, railroad, and railway intersections and curves, so as to prevent and permit removal of interference with and obstruction of the vision of users of said highways; and providing for the use of such lands in such manner as not to interfere with a free and unobstructed view," by providing for condemnation proceedings and assessment of damages.

Section 3,
act of June 14, 1923
(P. L. 801), amended.

Section 1. Be it enacted, &c., That section three of the act, approved the fourteenth day of June, one thousand nine hundred and twenty-three (Pamphlet Laws, eight hundred one), entitled "An act authorizing the State Highway Department, the Public Service Commission, counties, cities, boroughs, and townships to purchase, or condemn by the right of eminent domain, free and unobstructed view over and across lands at certain highway, railroad, and railway intersections and curves, so as to prevent and permit removal of interference with and obstruction of the vision of users of said highways; and providing for the use of such lands in such manner as not to interfere with a free and unobstructed view," is hereby amended to read as follows:

Condemnation proceedings.

Section 3. The proceedings for the condemnation of such view over and across such lands under the provisions of this act, and for the assessment of damages for property taken, injured, or destroyed, shall be taken in the same manner as [is now] provided for the condemnation of land by the State Highway Department for road purposes, by the Public Service Commission for the purposes allowed by law, and by counties, boroughs, and townships, for road purposes.

AN ACT

Authorizing the insurance of deposits of funds, of this Commonwealth and of the political subdivisions thereof, with the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation or other similar agency; and prohibiting requiring further security for amounts so insured.

Section 1. Be it enacted, &c., That all moneys, belonging to this Commonwealth and the political subdivi-visions thereof, or held, by the Commonwealth and any such political subdivision, for any purpose, and deposited with any banking institution in this Commonwealth, may be insured with the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation or any other corporation, hereafter organized by the United States for the purpose of insuring deposits up to the amount to which such corporation is, or may hereafter be authorized, to insure deposits in any one name; and when so insured, neither the Commonwealth, nor any such political subdivision thereof, shall require such banking institution to furnish additional bond, insurance or security, to cover the amount of such deposits so insured.

Section 2. All acts and parts of acts inconsistent herewith are hereby repealed. When effective.

Section 3. The provisions of this act shall become effective immediately upon its final enactment.

APPROVED—The 1st day of May, A. D. 1935.
