No. 65

AN ACT

To amend section two thousand nine hundred one of the act, approved the twenty-fourth day of June, one thousand nine hundred and thirty-one (Pamphlet Laws, one thousand two hundred six), entitled "An act concerning townships of the first class; amending, revising, consolidating, and changing the law relating thereto," by providing further exception to the tax on transient merchants.

Section 1. Be it enacted, &c., That section two thousand nine hundred one of the act, approved the twenty-fourth day of June, one thousand nine hundred and thirty-one (Pamphlet Laws, one thousand two hundred six), entitled "An act concerning townships of the first class; amending, revising, consolidating, and changing the law relating thereto," is hereby amended to read as follows:

Section 2901, act of June 24, 1931 (P. L. 1206), amended.

Section 2901. Every township shall have power, by ordinance, to regulate and license each and every transient retail business, within such township, for the sale of goods, wares and/or merchandise, and to prohibit the commencement or doing of any such business until or unless the license required by such ordinance has been procured from the proper authorities by the person, firm, or corporation desiring to commence such transient retail business; and to enforce such ordinances by penalties, not exceeding three hundred dollars, and/or by other appropriate means. The amount of any such license shall not exceed two hundred dollars for each month, or fractional part thereof, during which any such sale is continued.

Transient retail merchants.

Nothing contained in this section shall be construed to apply to (1) farmers selling their own produce, or (2) to the sale of goods, wares, and merchandise, donated by the owners thereof, the proceeds whereof are to be applied to any charitable or philanthropic purpose, or (3) to any manufacturer or producer in the sale of bread and bakery products, meat and meat products, or milk and milk products.

APPROVED—The 9th day of May, A. D. 1935.
