

Section 13. To shave or trim the beard or regular hair cutting, to give facial and scalp massaging, facial and scalp treatment, with any preparations made for this purpose, either by hand or by mechanical appliances, to singe and shampoo the hair or apply any makes of hair tonics, and to dye the hair of any person, for hire by the person performing such service, shall be construed as practicing the occupation of barber within the meaning of this act. No person shall practice barbering for pay, directly or indirectly, in any place other than a registered barber shop or where the barber is a registered barber, except that any registered barber may furnish barber services to persons at their place of residence or in institutions in cases of appointment: Provided, however, That nothing contained in this act shall be construed to include so called beauty shops or hair-dressing parlors or schools of beauty culture patronized by women, except that it shall be unlawful and a violation of this act for any person to employ or to accept employment, in any such shops, parlors or schools, who has been refused a certificate by the department.

Occupation of barber defined.

Proviso.

Section 2. That said act is here amended by adding thereto the following section.

Section 15-A. Nothing contained in this act, or the act to which this is an amendment, shall be construed as prohibiting any municipality from adopting appropriate ordinances, not inconsistent with the provisions of this act or the rules and regulations adopted thereunder, as may be deemed necessary to promote the public health and regulate the conduct of barber shops, schools, and colleges.

Right of municipality to regulate.

AN ACT

To amend sections one, seven, and eleven of the act, approved the seventh day of February, one thousand nine hundred and six (Pamphlet Laws, seven), entitled "An act to enable cities that are now, or may hereafter be, contiguous or in close proximity, to be united, with any intervening land other than boroughs, in one municipality; providing for the consequences of such consolidation, the temporary government of the consolidated city, payment of the indebtedness of each of the united territories, and the enforcement of debts and claims due to or from each," by requiring a majority vote in each city and in the intervening land voting on the question of consolidation, and extending the provisions of said act to pending proceedings.

Section 1. Be it enacted, &c., That sections one, seven, and eleven of the act, approved the seventh day of February, one thousand nine hundred and six (Pamphlet Sections 1, 7, and 11, act of February 7, 1906 (P. L. 7), amended.

Laws, seven), entitled "An act to enable cities that are now, or may hereafter be, contiguous or in close proximity, to be united with any intervening land other than boroughs, in one municipality; providing for the consequences of such consolidation, the temporary government of the consolidated city, payment of the indebtedness of each of the united territories, and the enforcement of debts and claims due to or from each," are hereby amended to read as follows:

Consolidation of cities.

Section 1. Be it enacted, &c., That wherever in this Commonwealth, now or hereafter, two cities shall be contiguous or in close proximity to each other, the two, with any intervening land other than boroughs, may be united and become one by annexing and consolidating the lesser city, and the intervening land other than boroughs, if any, with the greater city, and thus making one consolidated city, if at an election, to be held as hereinafter provided, there shall be a majority of all the votes cast in each city in favor of such union.

Majority in favor of consolidation.

Section 7. If it shall appear by the vote, when computed and certified as aforesaid, that a majority of all the lawful voters in each of the two cities and the intervening land, voting upon such question, have voted in favor of the annexation or consolidation, the said court of quarter sessions shall enter a decree annexing and consolidating the lesser city, and any intervening land other than boroughs, with the greater city, so that they form but one city, and in the name of the greater or larger city; but if a majority of the electors, so voting, in any one of the cities shall vote against annexation, the proceedings shall be dismissed, and the question of annexation shall not again be submitted to the vote of the electors for a period of less than two years from the date of such election.

Decree.

Majority against annexation.

When cities are located in distinct counties.

Section 11. Whenever it shall happen that the said cities, and the intervening land, if any, to be united, are located in whole or in part in distinct counties, then the respective courts of quarter sessions of each county and the courts of common pleas of each county, as well as the commissioners and other officers of each county, shall have, respectively, the jurisdiction and power, and each shall perform the duties hereinbefore enumerated in respect to the said consolidation, including all steps preceding and succeeding such consolidation, within the limits of each county, respectively.

Jurisdiction.

Result of election
to be certified to court of quarter sessions.

If more than one election shall be held, the results of all the elections shall ultimately be certified to the court of quarter sessions of the county in which the larger city is located; and the question whether the two cities, and the intervening land, if any, shall be united and become one consolidated city, shall be determined by the majority vote of all the lawful voters of each of the said two cities, and of the intervening land, if any, cast at said election, duly held, for or against such consolidation, and the result shall be decreed by the court.

Decree.

Section 2. This act shall apply to all proceedings pending in courts of quarter sessions for the consolidation of cities at the time this act becomes effective.

Act to apply to pending proceedings.

Section 3. This act shall become effective immediately upon final enactment.

When effective.
