AN ACT

To amend section two hundred twenty-six of the act, approved the second day of May, one thousand nine hundred twenty-five (Pamphlet Laws, four hundred forty-eight), entitled "An act relating to fish; and amending, revising, consolidating, and changing the law relating to fish in the inland waters and the boundary lakes and boundary rivers of the Commonwealth," by exempting from the provisions thereof, persons fishing in the waters of the Delaware River lying between New York and Pennsylvania, holding a fishing license issued by the State of New York, and persons fishing in the waters of the Pymatuning Lake, holding a fishing license issued by the State of Ohio.

Section 226, act
of May 2, 1925
(P. L. 448), amended.

Section 1. Be it enacted, &c., That section two hundred twenty-six of the act, approved the second day of May, one thousand nine hundred twenty-five (Pamphlet Laws, four hundred forty-eight), entitled "An act relating to fish; and amending, revising, consolidating, and changing the law relating to fish in the inland waters and the boundary lakes and boundary rivers of the Commonwealth," is hereby amended to read as follows:

Section 226. Unlawful to Fish Without License. No person shall angle or fish in any of the waters within or bounding on or adjacent to this Commonwealth unless the license hereinbefore provided be at such time continually kept about the person of the licensee and exhibited upon the request of any fish warden, sheriff, constable, or other officer of the Commonwealth. No person shall angle or fish in any of the waters within or bounding on or adjacent to this Commonwealth unless the license button be at such time continually displayed on the outer garment in such manner that the license figures are plainly visible.

The provisions of this section shall not apply to a person holding a fishing license, issued pursuant to the laws of the State of New York, when fishing by angling in that portion of the waters of the Delaware River lying between New York and Pennsylvania, within the jurisdiction of this State, if the persons holding angling licenses, issued pursuant to the provisions of this act, when fishing by angling in the waters of the Delaware River lying between New York and Pennsylvania, within the jurisdiction of the State of New York, are not required to have New York licenses, nor shall the provisions of this section apply to a person holding a fishing license, issued pursuant to the laws of the State of Ohio, when fishing by angling in the waters of the Pymatuning Lake or reservoir, within the jurisdiction of this State, if the persons holding licenses, issued pursuant to the provisions of this act, when fishing by angling in the waters of said lake, within the jurisdiction of the State of Ohio, are not required to have Ohio licenses.

Persons holding a New York permit.

Persons holding an Ohio permit.

Section 2. This act shall become effective immediately upon final enactment.

When effective.
