AN ACT

To amend section four hundred and twelve of the act, approved the twenty-second day of May, one thousand nine hundred and thirty-three (Pamphlet Laws, eight hundred fifty-three), entitled "An act relating to taxation; designating the subjects, property and persons subject to and exempt from taxation for all local purposes; providing for and regulating the assessment and valuation of persons, property and subjects of taxation for county purposes, and for the use of those municipal and quasi-municipal corporations which levy their taxes on county assessments and valuations; amending, revising and consolidating the law relating thereto; and repealing existing laws," by providing for the assessment of seated lands divided by the boundary line between two townships.

Section 1. Be it enacted, &c., That section four hundred and twelve of the act, approved the twenty-second day of May, one thousand nine hundred and thirty-three (Pamphlet Laws, eight hundred fifty-three), entitled "An act relating to taxation; designating the subjects, property and persons subject to and exempt from taxation for all local purposes; providing for and regulating the assessment and valuation of persons, property and subjects of taxation for county purposes, and for the use of those municipal and quasi-municipal corporations which levy their taxes on county assessments and valuations; amending, revising and consolidating the law relating thereto; and repealing existing laws," is hereby amended to read as follows:

Section 412. Assessment of Seated Lands Divided by Township Lines.—Where seated lands are divided by the boundary line between [two townships, or between] a township and a city, borough or town, and the mansion house is situate in a township, the whole of such lands shall be assessed only in the township where the mansion house is situated. Where the mansion house is situated in a city, borough or town, and the balance of such seated lands are located in one or more townships, the land located in such township or townships shall be assessed therein, and the land located in the city, borough or town shall be assessed therein.

Where seated lands are divided by the boundary line between two townships, the land located in each township shall be assessed therein, notwithstanding the situs of the residence or mansion house.

When effective.

Section 2. The provisions of this act shall become effective immediately upon its final enactment, but nothing herein contained shall authorize a change in any existing assessment previous to the next triennial assessment.

AN ACT

Authorizing the Department of Property and Supplies, with the approval of the Governor and the Department of Military Affairs, to sell and convey a certain portion of the lands acquired for a State Military Cemetery, located at Boalsburg, Centre County, Pennsylvania.

Department of Property and Supplies.

Section 1. Be it enacted, &c., That the Department of Property and Supplies, with the approval of the Governor and the Department of Military Affairs, is hereby authorized to sell and convey to any cemetery association or religious organization maintaining a cemetery, for such price as may be agreed upon, any portion of the land acquired for a State Military Cemetery, located at Boalsburg, Centre County, Pennsylvania, where such portion is cut off from the main portion of such military cemetery by a public road or highway, and is unlikely to be used in the future for military cemetery purposes.
