No. 356

AN ACT

To amend section twenty-seven of the act, approved the twentieth day of July, one thousand nine hundred seventeen (Pamphlet Laws, one thousand one hundred forty-three), entitled "An act relating to free, public, nonsectarian libraries and branch libraries within this Commonwealth; providing for their establishment, maintenance, and regulation, and for the maintenance and regulation of such free, public, nonsectarian libraries as may have been already established by the several counties, cities, boroughs, towns, and townships; and providing that all library property, and all gifts, devises, grants, or endowments for library purposes, shall be exempt from taxation; and providing that the several counties, cities, boroughs, towns, and townships may levy taxes, condemn private property, and borrow money for library purposes; and imposing penalties for injuring library property and for violations of library regulations; and repealing existing laws in relation to the above subjects," by exempting from collateral inheritance tax all gifts, devises, grants or endowments made to national libraries.

Section 27, act
of July 20, 1917
(P. L. 1143), amended.

Section 1. Be it enacted, &c., That section twenty-seven of the act, approved the twentieth day of July, one thousand nine hundred seventeen (Pamphlet Laws, one thousand one hundred forty-three), entitled "An act relating to free, public, nonsectarian libraries and branch libraries within this Commonwealth; providing for their establishment, maintenance, and regulation, and for the maintenance and regulation of such free, public, nonsectarian libraries as may have been already established by the several counties, cities, boroughs, towns, and townships; and providing that all library property, and all gifts, devises, grants, or endowments for library purposes, shall be exempt from taxation; and providing that the several counties, cities, boroughs, towns, and townships may levy taxes, condemn private property, and borrow money for library purposes; and imposing penalties for injuring library property and for violations of library regulations; and repealing existing laws in relation to the above subjects," is hereby amended to read as follows:

Exemption from taxation.

Section 27. Any building which shall be owned and occupied by a free, public, nonsectarian library, and the land on which it stands and that which is immediately and necessarily appurtenant thereto, shall be exempt from all county, city, borough, town, school, bounty, poor, or road taxes, notwithstanding the fact that some portion or portions of said building or lands appurtenant may be yielding rentals to the corporation or association managing such library: Provided, That the net receipts of said corporation or association from rentals shall be used solely for the purpose of maintaining the said library. All gifts, devises, grants, or endowments made to such a library, or to a national library, and for such purposes, shall be free from collateral inheritance tax; and any gifts, endowments, or funds of such [a library] libraries which are invested in interest-bearing securities, the income from which is used solely for the purpose of books or the maintenance of such [library] libraries, shall be exempt from any State tax on money at interest.

Proviso.

Collateral inheritance tax.

When effective.

Section 2. This act shall become effective immediately upon its final enactment.
