AN ACT

To amend section seven hundred sixteen of the act, approved the third day of June, one thousand nine hundred thirty-seven (Pamphlet Laws, one thousand two hundred twenty-five), entitled "An act concerning game and other wild birds and wild animals; and amending, revising, consolidating, and changing the law relating thereto," authorizing the sale and purchase of hides of lawfully killed deer under certain circumstances, and making it unlawful to buy or sell raccoons for propagating purposes.

The General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania hereby enacts as follows:

Section 1. Section seven hundred sixteen of the act, approved the third day of June, one thousand nine hundred thirty-seven (Pamphlet Laws, one thousand two hundred twenty-five), entitled "An act concerning game and other wild birds and wild animals; and amending, revising, consolidating, and changing the law relating thereto," is hereby amended to read as follows:

Section 716, act of June 3, 1937, P. L. 1225, amended.

Section 716. Buying and Selling Game.—Except as otherwise provided by this act, it is unlawful for any person, at any time, to buy, sell, or barter, or offer for sale or barter, or have in possession for sale or barter, any game, or parts thereof, no matter where such game has been killed, excepting deer or rabbits killed in another state or nation, or the skins of raccoons and bears, no matter where killed, and other game legally killed and imported from another state or nation when tagged as herein required.

Buying, selling game.

Exception.

Except as otherwise provided by this act, it is unlawful for any person, at any time, to sell or barter, or offer for sale or barter, for human consumption, any species of game, or parts thereof, protected by this act or similar thereto, imported either dead or alive from another state or nation, except deer or rabbits, unless the carton containing such birds or animals, or the individual carcasses, shall have attached a tag identifying the birds or animals in plain English, and giving the state or nation from which originally shipped. Before any such game may be offered for sale, there shall first have been attached to each bird or animal, by a representative of the commission, a metal seal, the cost of which is hereby fixed at five cents, which seal shall remain attached until the carcass is prepared, or finally cut up, for consumption.

Metal seal.

Exceptions. Nothing in this section shall be construed to prevent the purchase or sale of game raised under authority of a propagating permit in this Commonwealth and properly tagged; or the purchase or sale of live raccoons legally possessed, for release [or propagating purposes] within the Commonwealth; or the purchase or sale, or introduction into this State, at any time, of live birds or animals for propagation, liberation, or for any other purpose that has been inspected and legally passed in accordance with the conditions hereinafter stipulated; or to prevent, at any time, the sale within the State, or the shipment out of the State, without a license of any kind, of any animal raised in captivity and not found in a wild state in this Commonwealth; or the purchase or sale of the tanned, cured, or mounted heads or skins, or parts thereof, of any game not killed in a wild state in this Commonwealth, or the sale or purchase of deer hides or any part thereof from animals lawfully killed, if such hides are disposed of by the original owner within ninety days after the close of the previous open season, but this provision shall not be construed to permit any individual or agency other than the commission to sell the skins of deer killed as a protection to crops.
