

ships of the second class, by resolution. After adoption, any such agreement shall become binding upon the municipality, and the covenants thereof may be enforced by appropriate remedy by any one or more municipalities against any other municipality party thereto.

Section 4. Every such agreement shall set forth, inter alia, the particulars relating to the manner of co-operation, the means by and through which such co-operation shall be effectuated, including, if any, the employment of joint personnel and the purchase of personal property and materials for the joint use of the municipalities, the allocation of the costs and expenses connected with the administration of the joint agreement upon an equitable basis, the term for which the agreement shall be in force, and the manner in which the same may be renewed for another term, and the manner in which joint property shall be disposed of or shared upon the termination of the agreement. Amendments to any agreement shall be adopted in the same manner as the original agreement.

Terms of agreement.

Section 5. All joint purchases involving an expenditure of more than five hundred dollars ($500), shall be made by contract, in writing, only after notice for bids once a week for two weeks in at least one and not more than two newspapers of general circulation circulating generally in the joining municipalities. All contracts shall be let to the lowest responsible bidder.

Joint purchases and expenditures.

Section 6. This act shall not be construed to authorize one municipality to delegate any of its powers, duties and functions to another municipality, nor to authorize one municipality to exercise such powers, duties or functions on behalf of another municipality.

Limitations.

Section 7. All acts and parts of acts inconsistent with the provisions of this act are hereby repealed.

Inconsistent acts repealed.

Section 8. This act shall become effective immediately upon final enactment.

No. 160

AN ACT

Providing for fresh pursuit by military forces, and authorizing this State to cooperate with other states therein.

The General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania hereby enacts as follows:

"Fresh Pursuit by Military Forces Act."

Section 1. Use Without This State.—No military forces of this State, other than the National Guard and the Pennsylvania State Guard, shall be required to serve outside the boundaries of this State, except:

(a) Any organization, unit or detachment of such forces, upon order of the officer in immediate command thereof, may continue in fresh pursuit of insurrectionists, saboteurs, enemies or enemy forces beyond the borders of this State into another state until they are apprehended or captured by such organization, unit or detachment, or until the military or police forces of the other state or the forces of the United States have had a reasonable opportunity to take up the pursuit or to apprehend or capture such persons: Provided, such other state shall have given authority by law for such pursuit by such forces of this State. Any such person who shall be apprehended or captured in such other state by an organization, unit or detachment of the forces of this State, shall without unnecessary delay be surrendered to the military or police forces of the state in which he is taken or to the United States, but such surrender shall not constitute a waiver by this State of its right to extradite or prosecute such person for any crime committed in this State.

Section 2. Permission to Forces of Other States.—Any military forces, or organization, unit or detachment thereof, of another state, who are in fresh pursuit of insurrectionists, saboteurs, enemies or enemy forces, may continue such pursuit into this State until the military or police forces of this State or the forces of the United States have had a reasonable opportunity to take up the pursuit or to apprehend or capture such persons, and are hereby authorized to arrest or capture such persons within this State while in fresh pursuit. Any such person who shall be captured or arrested by the military forces of such other state while in this State, shall, without unnecessary delay, be surrendered to the military or police forces of this State, to be dealt with according to law. This section shall not be construed so as to make unlawful any arrest in this State which would otherwise be lawful.

act severable.

Section 3. Severability.—If any provision of this act or the application thereof to any person or circumstances is held invalid, such invalidity shall not affect other provisions or applications of the act which can be given effect without the invalid provision or application, and to this end the provisions of this act are declared to be severable.

Inconsistent
acts repealed.

Section 4. Repeal.—All acts and parts of acts inconsistent with the provisions of this act are hereby repealed.

Section 5. Short Title.—This act may be cited as the "Fresh Pursuit by Military Forces Act."

Act effective immediately.

Section 6. This act shall become effective immediately upon final enactment.

APPROVED—The 21st day of May, A. D. 1943.
