AN ACT

To further amend the act, approved the third day of June, one thousand nine hundred thirty-seven (Pamphlet Laws 1225), entitled "An act concerning game and other wild birds and wild animals; and amending, revising, consolidating, and changing the law relating thereto," by providing for the issuance of special three-day licenses to nonresidents; by increasing the maximum license revocation period for a first offense and allowing appeals from acknowledgments of violations; by eliminating the requirements for tags before shipping raw furs to other states; by increasing the penalty for failure or refusing to stop vehicle or conveyance upon request or signal of an officer in full uniform; and by providing additional penalties.

The General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania hereby enacts as follows:

"The Game Law."

Section 1. Article three of the act, approved the third day of June, one thousand nine hundred thirty-seven (Pamphlet Laws 1225), entitled "An act concerning game and other wild birds and wild animals; and amending, revising, consolidating, and changing the law relating thereto," is hereby amended by adding, immediately following section three hundred three, a new section to read as follows:

Article III, act of June 3, 1937, P. L. 1225, amended by adding, following section 303, a new section numbered 303.1.

Section 303.1. Three-Day Licenses to Nonresidents to Hunt on Regulated Shooting Grounds.—Every person, sixteen (16) years of age or upward, upon application in writing to the authorized agent, in such form as the commission may prescribe, and the presentation of proof that he or she is a nonresident of the Commonwealth but a citizen of the United States, and, in the case of naturalized foreign-born nonresidents, the production of such applicant's naturalization papers, shall, upon the payment to the issuing agent of three dollars ($3.00), for the use of the commission, and fifteen cents ($.15), for the use of the issuing agent, be entitled to the license, herein referred to as a "Three-Day Special Regulated Shooting Ground License," which shall be valid for a period of three (3) consecutive days, Sundays excluded, and shall entitle the holder thereof to hunt, take or kill, on lawfully operated regulated shooting grounds, all wild birds and wild animals which may be legally hunted, taken or killed in this Commonwealth on such grounds, and to participate in a shoot held thereon, under a regulated shooting grounds permit.

A tag or button, in such size and form as the commission may determine, shall be issued with each license, which tag or button the licensee is required to wear in plain view on an outer garment at all times while using it, in such a manner that the tag or button and the numerals thereon is plainly visible. The holder of such license shall be subject to the restrictions and requirements of all laws and regulations of the commission, now in force or hereafter adopted, and to the penalties prescribed for violation thereof.

Upon filing an appropriate bond, with corporate surety, in the sum of one thousand dollars ($1000), approved by the Department of Justice, the permittees of regulated shooting grounds, or an officer of a corporate permittee, who, for that purpose, are hereby made agents of the Department of Revenue, shall be authorized to issue Three-Day Nonresident Licenses for use on the grounds of the issuing permittees.

Each issuing agent shall keep a record and make monthly reports and remittances in the form and manner and at the time prescribed by sections three hundred ten and three hundred eleven of The Game Law.

Nothing herein contained shall prevent holders of nonresident hunting licenses from hunting on regulated shooting grounds by requiring them to obtain an additional license as prescribed above.

Clause (a) of subsection (3) of section 315, said act, amended.

Section 2. Clause (a) of subsection (3) of section three hundred fifteen of said act is hereby amended to read as follows:

Section 315. Revocation of Licenses; Right to Hunt or Trap Denied.—

(3) Such license revocations shall be for the following periods:

(a) For the first offense, any person convicted or having signed an acknowledgment, subject to a right of appeal, of violating any of the provisions of this act may be denied the right to hunt or trap anywhere in this Commonwealth, with or without a license, for a period of not to exceed [two] three years. Any person convicted or having signed an acknowledgment of a second or subsequent offense of violating any of the provisions of this act may be denied the right to hunt or trap anywhere in this Commonwealth, with or without a license, for a period of not less than two or more than three years. For the third offense of violating any of the provisions of this act such person shall be denied the right to hunt or trap anywhere in this Commonwealth, with or without a license, for such period as the commission shall determine.

* * * * *

Section 605, said act, repealed.

Section 3. Section six hundred five of said act is hereby repealed.

Clause (o) of section 731, said act, as amended by act of June 24, 1929, P. L. 810, further amended.

Section 4. Clause (o) of section seven hundred thirty-one of said act, which was amended by the act, approved the twenty-fourth day of June, one thousand nine hundred thirty-nine (Pamphlet Laws 810), is hereby further amended to read as follows:

Section 731. Penalties.—Any person violating any of the provisions of the sections of this article shall, upon conviction, be sentenced to pay the following fines and costs of prosecution for each offense:

* * * * *

(o) For failure or refusing to stop any vehicle or conveyance being operated upon any public highway within this Commonwealth, upon request or signal of any officer in full uniform whose duty it is to enforce the game law, contrary to the provisions of this article, [ten] twenty-five dollars;
