

such corporations provide for notice by publication, it shall be unnecessary to give written notice of meetings to members of record entitled to vote at meetings, and such notice by advertising shall be effective as actual and not merely constructive notice of meetings. When a meeting is adjourned, it shall not be necessary to give any notice of the adjourned meeting, or of the business to be transacted at an adjourned meeting, other than by announcement at the meeting at which such adjournment is taken, unless otherwise provided in the by-laws.

In lieu of any other notice of a meeting of members, whether it be a regular or special meeting, required to be given by this act, except notice of adjourned meetings as provided for by this section, persons authorized to call any such meeting of any church or religious organization may give notice of such meeting, by announcement, at any two regular church or religious services held within thirty days prior to the time at which such meeting of members will be held. If the matter of making, altering, amending or repealing by-laws is to be considered, notice shall be given, by announcement, at three regular services held within forty days prior to the time of such meeting. In any case where notice of meetings are given by announcement, notice shall be given at the last service preceding the meeting. In the event that the two or three church or religious services required are not held within the thirty or forty day period as heretofore provided, notice of meetings shall be given as otherwise provided in this section.

No. 450

AN ACT

To add clause (1) to section two thousand one hundred two of the act, approved the ninth day of April, one thousand nine hundred twenty-nine (Pamphlet Laws 177), entitled "An act providing for and reorganizing the conduct of the executive and administrative work of the Commonwealth by the Executive Department thereof and the administrative departments, boards, commissions, and officers thereof, including the boards of trustees of State Normal Schools, or Teachers Colleges; abolishing, creating, reorganizing or authorizing the reorganization of certain administrative departments, boards, and commissions; defining the powers and duties of the Governor and other executive and administrative officers, and of the several administrative departments, boards, commissions, and officers; fixing the salaries of the Governor, Lieutenant Governor, and certain other executive and administrative officers; providing for the appointment of certain administrative officers, and of all deputies and other assistants and employes in certain departments, boards, and commissions; and prescribing the manner in which the number and compensation of the deputies and all other assistants and employes of certain departments, boards and commissions shall be determined," by authorizing and making it the duty of the Department of Health to provide limited training in the field of public health work for certain State and municipal employes.

The General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania hereby enacts as follows:

Section 1. Section two thousand one hundred two of the act, approved the ninth day of April, one thousand nine hundred twenty-nine (Pamphlet Laws 177), entitled "An act providing for and reorganizing the conduct of the executive and administrative work of the Commonwealth by the Executive Department thereof and the administrative departments, boards, commissions, and officers thereof, including the boards of trustees of State Normal Schools, or Teachers Colleges; abolishing, creating, reorganizing or authorizing the reorganization of certain administrative departments, boards, and commissions; defining the powers and duties of the Governor and other executive and administrative officers, and of the several administrative departments, boards, commissions, and officers; fixing the salaries of the Governor, Lieutenant Governor, and certain other executive and administrative officers; providing for the appointment of certain administrative officers, and of all deputies and other assistants and employes in certain departments, boards, and commissions; and prescribing the manner in which the number and compensation of the deputies and all other assistants and employes of certain departments, boards and commissions shall be determined," as amended by the act, approved the eighteenth day of July, one thousand nine hundred forty-one (Pamphlet Laws 412), is hereby further amended by adding, at the end thereof, a new clause to read as follows:

Section 2102. General Health Administration.—The Department of Health shall have the power, and its duty shall be:

* * * * *

(1) To train and make available appropriate facilities to train certain otherwise qualified State, county and municipal employes in the field of public health work, to become more familiar with, and therefor better understand, the various administrative and technical problems peculiar to public health services.

Section 3. This act shall become effective immediately upon final enactment.

Department of Health.

The Administrative Code.

Section 2102, act of April 9, 1929, P. L. 177, amended July 18, 1941, P. L. 412, further amended by adding a new clause (1).

Act effective immediately.
