

The annual appropriation made by the city each year shall be sufficient, when added to the contributions made by members of the police force during such year and income from investments, to pay in full the retirement allowances payable during such year.

Annual appropriation by city.

Such ordinance may prescribe a minimum period of continuous service, not less than twenty years and a minimum age of fifty years, after which members of the force may be retired from active duty, and such members as are retired shall be subject to service from time to time as a police reserve until unfitted for such service, when they may be finally discharged by reason of age or disability.

Minimum service and age requirements.

Payments made under the provisions of this section shall not be a charge on any other fund in the treasury of the city or under its control save the police retirement fund herein provided for. The basis of the apportionment of the retirement allowance shall be determined by the rate of the monthly pay of the member at the date of death, honorable discharge, or retirement, and shall not [in any case] exceed in any year one-half the annual pay of such member computed at such monthly rate, unless the retirement allowance so determined is less than one hundred twenty-five dollars ($125.00) per month, in which case the minimum retirement allowance of any member presently or hereafter entitled to a retirement allowance may be increased to one hundred twenty-five dollars ($125.00) per month.

Apportionment of payment.

AN ACT

Amending the act of May 5, 1933 (P. L. 457), entitled "An act relating to the business of building and loan associations; providing for the organization and voluntary dissolution of such associations; defining the rights, powers, duties, liabilities, and immunities of such associations, and of their officers, directors, shareholders, solicitors, and other employes; prohibiting the transaction of business in this Commonwealth by foreign building and loan associations; conferring powers and imposing duties upon the courts, recorders of deeds, and certain State departments, commissions, and officers; establishing limitations of actions; imposing penalties; and repealing certain acts and parts of acts," further defining and limiting the rights, powers, duties and liabilities of such associations and shareholders, and further defining terms, and authorizing additional types of loans.

Building and Loan Code.

The General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania hereby enacts as follows:

Subsection A, section 2, act of May 5, 1933, P. L. 457, amended by adding a new definition.

Section 1. Subsection A of section 2, act of May 5, 1933 (P. L. 457), known as the "Building and Loan Code," is amended by adding, after the definition of "Department," a new definition to read:

Section 2. Definitions.—A. The following terms shall be construed in this act to have the following meanings except in those instances where the context clearly indicates otherwise:

* * * * *

"Housing Facilities for the Aging" means housing accommodations, individual or multiple, designed for the purpose of providing accommodations for occupancy by aging persons or of providing rest homes or nursing homes existing, constructed or altered so as to be suitable primarily for the occupancy of persons of fifty-five years of age and older and limited principally to the occupancy of such persons.
