AN ACT

Amending the act of June 3, 1937 (P. L. 1225), entitled "An act concerning game and other wild birds and wild animals; and amending, revising, consolidating, and changing the law relating thereto," increasing the nonresident hunting license fee.

The Game Law. The General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania hereby enacts as follows:

Section 303, act of June 3, 1937, P. L. 1225, amended December 22, 1959, P. L. 2013, further amended.

Section 1. Section 303, act of June 3, 1937 (P. L. 1225), known as "The Game Law," amended December 22, 1959 (P. L. 2013), is amended to read:

Section 303. Nonresident Hunting and Alien Nonresident License Fees.—Every nonresident of this Commonwealth, upon application made, in writing, to any agent authorized to issue such licenses, or to the Department of Revenue, and the presentation of proof that he is a citizen of the United States, unless any such person has been disqualified for a license in the manner hereinafter specified, and upon payment to said agent or commission of [twenty dollars ($20)] twenty-five dollars and thirty-five cents ($25.35) shall be entitled to the license herein designated as a Nonresident Hunter's License and a tag with the number of the license thereon, which shall entitle the holder to hunt for all wild birds and wild animals which may legally be hunted in this Commonwealth, until the close of the license year. Other licenses valid for use by nonresidents and alien nonresidents shall be as follows:

Nonresident trapper's license which shall be issued only upon application to the Commission in Harrisburg and which shall be effective for the same period as hunter's licenses shall entitle the holder to take through the use of traps or deadfalls only wild birds and wild animals which may legally be trapped in this Commonwealth, except beavers, twenty-five dollars ($25). Nothing in this clause shall be construed to prohibit the holder of a nonresident trapper's license from using a sidearm or a rifle not larger than a .22 rimfire caliber to kill legally caught birds and animals.

Every alien nonresident of this Commonwealth who is also a nonresident of the United States, upon written application made to the Department of Revenue, setting forth satisfactory evidence of his mental and physical fitness to carry and use firearms, unless any such person has been disqualified for a license in the manner hereinafter specified, and upon the payment to the Department of Revenue of the fees above designated for nonresidents shall be entitled to a nonresident hunter's license, and the proper tag issued therewith, but the Department of Revenue shall indicate on the face of the license that the holder is an alien nonresident.

Section 2. The increase in license fees provided for in this amending act shall be applicable to licenses issued for the license period beginning September 1, 1963. Applicability.

APPROVED—The 30th day of July, A. D. 1963.
